Contents

List of figures vii
List of tables viii
List of boxes x
Acknowledgements xi

1 Why this book? 1

Introduction 1
The transition to an increasingly urbanized world 7
How we came to be engaged in this issue 11
Some notes on terminologies used 13

2 Measuring poverty 15

Introduction 15
Understating urban poverty 20
The unrealistic criteria used to set poverty lines 25
Costs for non-food essentials 55
Other limitations of poverty lines 70
A framework for considering the multiple deprivations 89

3 Why is health so poor among low-income urban dwellers? 91

Introduction 91
The determinants of health for urban populations 96
Factors leading to poor health 102
Urban poverty and mortality 105
Urban poverty and nutrition 112
Urban poverty and morbidity 114
Urban poverty and environment 117
Urban poverty and disasters 140
Urban poverty and climate change 144
Contents

4 Incomes and livelihoods

- Introduction 151
- Understanding the informal economy 155
- Securing income 164
- Labour and livelihoods 168
- Gender and generation 181
- Economies 193
- Conclusion 210

5 Critical issues in urban inequality

- Introduction 214
- Why inequality matters 216
- Approaches and frameworks 220
- The experience of income inequalities 230
- 'Urban inequality: The nexus between income, access to infrastructure and services and residential areas' 249
- Political inequalities 266
- Conclusion 271

6 Broadening the understanding and measurement of urban poverty

- Introduction 278
- Understanding the multiple deprivations associated with urban poverty 278
- Implications for incorporating the many dimensions of deprivation into poverty assessments and measurements 280
- Implications for reducing poverty 284
- The opportunities for enhancing income, consumption and services 286
- Implications for the measurement of urban poverty 290
- Urban poverty and health 295
- Comparing urban and rural poverty? 297
- Addressing inequality 301
- What is needed in a post-MDG world 303

Notes

References

Index