Contents

Acknowledgments ix
List of Acronyms xiii

Introduction 1

1. Community-Based, “Catch-All” Organizing on New York’s Lower East Side 15

2. Getting beyond Racial, Ethnic, Religious, and Skill-Based Divisions 42

3. “Like a Scab over an Infected Sore”: Full and Fair Employment during and after World War II 66

4. Attacked from the Right and the Left: Community-Organizing, Civic Unionism during the Early Years of the Cold War 91

5. A Third Labor Federation? The Distributive, Processing, and Office Workers of America (DPO) 114

6. Community Organizing under the AFL-CIO Umbrella 137

Conclusion 167

Abbreviated Chronology 187

Notes 189

Index 221