MARKETING GEOGRAPHY
with special reference to retailing

ROSS L. DAVIES

Volume 4

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
Contents

List of Illustrations ix

List of Tables xiii

1. The Scope of Marketing Geography 1
   The specific American connotation of marketing geography—the importance of planning control in Britain—theoretical bases to marketing geography—the main themes

2. Traditional and Theoretical Frameworks of Study 11
   Traditional studies of centres and trade areas—central place theory—general interaction theory—further theoretical avenues

3. Growth and Developments in the Distributive Trades 47
   Major components of the distributive trades—the main channels of distribution—trends in the aggregate structure of retailing—the process of organisational change

4. National and Regional Systems of Centres 84
   Hierarchies of settlements classified by centrality—hierarchies of the main shopping centres of towns—methodological issues involved—correlates of centre size and different types of towns—summary

5. Business Land Uses Inside the City 117
   Classifications of business configurations—the internal characteristics of shopping centres—problems of central area delimitation—the spatial structure of the central area—summary

Changes in the North American city—concentration versus decentralisation in Britain—the emphasis on central area redevelopment—the extent of decentralisation in Britain—summary

7. Consumer Behaviour and Space Preferences in Shopping 198
Studies of aggregate patterns of movement—the structure of urban shopping trips—variations and changes in consumer behaviour—perception studies and the cognitive-behavioural approach—summary

8. Forecasting and Allocation Techniques 232
The main types of techniques—problems in the application of interaction models—summary

9. Store Location and Store Assessment Research 259
The process of selecting a new location—forecasting and evaluating retail performance—summary

10. Conclusion 288

Author Index 293

Subject Index 297