Development Challenges Confronting Pakistan

Edited by

ANITA M. WEISS AND SABA GUL KHATTAK

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PAKISTAN STUDIES

Kumarian Press
An Imprint of Stylus Publishing
Sterling, VA
Contents

Acknowledgments vii

1. Introduction 1
   Anita M. Weiss

Part One
Economic Challenges

2. Explaining the Puzzle of Pakistan's Lagging Economic Growth 23
   Shahrukh Rafi Khan

3. Dependency Is Dead: Long Live Dependency 43
   Aasim Sajjad Akhtar

4. Insecurity Breeds Insecurity 57
   Abid Qaiyum Suleri

Part Two
Challenges of Infrastructural Transformation

5. What Must Be Changed in Pakistan's Legal System, But How to Succeed? 73
   Aitzaz Ahsan

6. Political Impediments to Development 81
   Hasan Askari Rizvi

7. Reforming Pakistan's Bureaucracy 99
   Will the Eighteenth Amendment Help?
   Saeed Shafqat
vi  Contents

Part Three
Challenges of Human Security

8. Social Protection 123
   Extending Exclusion or Ending Exclusion?
   SABA GUL KHATTAK

9. “No American, No Gun, No BS” 141
   Tourism, Terrorism, and the Eighteenth Amendment
   JOHN MOCK

10. The Importance of Population Policy in Pakistan 161
    ZEBA SATHAR AND PETER C. MILLER

11. Religion and Development Challenges in Pakistan 183
    MUHAMMAD KHALID MASUD

12. Faith-Based Versus Rights-Based Development for Pakistani Women 199
    AFIYA SHEHRBANO ZIA

Part Four
Ongoing Challenges of Militancy, Insecurity, and Political Paths

13. Gendered Peripheries 211
    Structuring the Nation, the State, and Consensus in Pakistan
    NAZISH BROHI

14. Pakistan’s Political Development 225
    Will the Future Be Like the Past?
    ASHLEY J. TELLIS

15. The Intersection of Development, Politics, and Security 239
    MOEED YUSUF

Editors and Contributors 267

Index 275