The Politics of Poverty

Planning India’s Development

D. K. Rangnekar
CONTENTS

Foreword by T. N. Ninan vii
Preface and Acknowledgements by Dwijen Rangnekar xv
Introduction and Overview: Humanist Economics as Public Reason by Pratap Bhanu Mehta xviii

Part One: The Politics of Poverty—The Social Crisis of Development in India

1. Crisis Today: The Dimming of Hope 3
2. Politics of Poverty—I: The Deepening Social Crisis 10
3. Politics of Poverty—II: A Quiet Burial for Ideology 17
4. The Ritual of Remembering Gandhiji 21
5. Farmers' Stir—I: Writing on the Nasik Wall 28
6. Farmers' Stir—II: Changes in Inter-sectoral Price Parity 37
7. Will the Rains Fill Our Bowls? 50

Part Two: Dependencies' Independence—The International Context to India's Experiment

8. Economic Co-operation 65
9. North–South Divide: An Economic Analysis 78
10. Today's Controversies—I: Delhi's Attitude to Aid 99
11. Today's Controversies—II: Fertiliser and Foreign Capital 108
12. Trade Prospects 119