NATIONAL INCOME
AND
ECONOMIC GROWTH

Kenneth K. Kurihara
Professor of Economics, Rutgers University

Ruskin House
GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN LTD
MUSEUM STREET LONDON
CONTENTS

PREFACE 7

PART I: INCOME FORMATION
1. The Concepts and Measures of National Income 13
2. The Determination of Equilibrium Income 25
3. Full-Employment and Unemployment Equilibria 36
4. Inflationary and Deflationary Gaps 46
   (Appendix: A Note on 'Cost-Push' Inflation)

PART II: INCOME FLUCTUATION
5. The Simple-Multiplier Process 63
6. The Super-Multiplier Process 76
7. Public Finance and Income Fluctuation 89
8. Foreign Trade and Income Fluctuation 102

PART III: INCOME GROWTH
9. The Rationale of Growth Studies 117
10. The Basic Mechanism of Income Growth 127
11. Income Growth in Mixed Open Economies 138
12. Technology, Population and Full-Employment Growth 149
13. Towards Balanced Equilibrium Growth 158

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 169

INDEX 172