Money and Banking in Jean-Baptiste Say’s Economic Thought

Gilles Jacoud
Contents

Preface xvi
Acknowledgements xvii

1 Introduction 1
GILLES JACOUD

PART I
Extracts from the Catechism of Political Economy 23
JEAN-BAPTISTE SAY

2 Of money 25

3 Of the representative signs of money 32

PART II
Of monies. Extracts from the Complete Course in Practical Political Economy 37
JEAN-BAPTISTE SAY

4 Of the nature and uses of money 39

5 Of the material of money 49

6 Of the foundation of the value of monies 52

7 Why the value of silver did not decrease more following the discovery of America 59

8 Of the relative value of different metals used as money 67
9 Of the manufacture of metallic monies
10 Of the profit it is possible to make from the manufacture of monies
11 Of the attempts which have been made to have a measure of values
12 Of the value of precious metals compared with that of wheat, from ancient times
13 Evaluation of historical amounts
14 Of paper monies

PART III
Of the representative signs of money. Extracts from the Complete Course in Practical Political Economy

15 General characteristics of representative signs
16 Of trust notes and banks of circulation
17 Abuses of banks of circulation
18 Of deposit banks and party transfers
19 Of promissory notes, bills of exchange and foreign exchange

PART IV
Extracts from A Treatise on Political Economy

20 Extracts from editions 1, 2 and 3 of A Treatise on Political Economy
21 Extracts from editions 5 and 6 of A Treatise on Political Economy
PART V
Manuscripts, notes and various texts

JEAN-BAPTISTE SAY

22 Tribunate. Report made on behalf of the finance section on the projected law concerning the recoinage of monies.
Session of 9 Germinal an XI

23 Monsieur Ferrier's theory of money, capital par excellence

24 Notes on Henri Storch's Cours d'économie politique

25 Of the commercial crisis in England

26 Extracts from correspondence

27 Plan for a new money in Ricardo's style

28 Of deposit banks and party transfers

29 Of the debasement of monies

Appendix: Chronological table

GILLES JACoud

Index