After the Fall: The Future of Global Cooperation

Geneva Reports on the World Economy 14

Jeffry Frieden
Harvard University

Michael Pettis
Peking University

Dani Rodrik
Harvard University

Ernesto Zedillo
Yale University

ICMB INTERNATIONAL CENTER
FOR MONETARY
AND BANKING STUDIES

CIMB CENTRE INTERNATIONAL
D'ETUDES MONETAIRES
ET BANCAIRES
5 The Domestic Political Economy of International Economic Cooperation

5.1 The United States 34
5.2 The European Union 37
5.3 China 40
5.4 Brazil 45
5.5 Inconvenient truths 46

6 The Normative Case for Governance of the International Economy

6.1 New modes of global governance? 49
6.2 Thinking about global governance: first principles 51
6.3 A quartet of policy problems 51
6.4 Purely domestic policies 52
6.5 Global commons policies 52
6.6 Beggar-thy-neighbour policies 53
6.7 Beggar-thyself policies 55
6.8 Summarising the typology 58

7 Macro is the New Trade: Future Problems of the International Economy

7.1 Introduction 61
7.2 Trade 62
7.3 The challenge of financial regulatory coherence 63
7.4 Conflicts over macroeconomic policy and related trade issues 65
7.5 Recurrent global imbalances? 68
7.6 Problems of development in the new global environment 74

8 Looking Ahead 81

Discussions and Roundtables 83

References 103