Understanding Mergers and Acquisitions in the 21st Century

A Multidisciplinary Approach

Killian J. McCarthy and Wilfred Dolfsma

University of Groningen, the Netherlands
Contents

List of Tables vii
List of Figures viii
Notes on Contributors x

1 Introduction – Understanding Mergers and Acquisitions in the 21st Century: A Multidisciplinary Approach 1
   Killian J. McCarthy and Wilfred Dolfsma

Part I Setting the Scene

A Perspective from Economics and Law

2 The Business Environment – Mergers and Merger Waves: A Century of Cause and Effect 11
   Killian J. McCarthy

3 The Legal Environment – The Same but Different? A Comparison of the Regulatory Regimes of 21st-Century Europe, the USA and China 37
   Odhran James McCarthy

Part II Explaining M&A Performances

A Perspective from Economics and Business

4 Firm Size – When Bigger Isn’t Always Better: A Study of Merger and Acquisitions by Small and Medium Enterprises 79
   Utz Weitzel and Killian J. McCarthy

5 Merger Motives – Merger Motives and the Realization of Gains 109
   Killian J. McCarthy and Utz Weitzel

6 Shareholder Optimism – Shareholders’ Expectations, Aspiration Levels and Mergers 148
   Enrico Diecidue, Jeroen van de Ven and Utz Weitzel
Contents

A Perspective from Psychology and Sociology

7 Culture – Addressing Culture in Mergers and Acquisitions 167
   Christine Coisne

8 Managerial Power – Power, and the Destruction of Value in Mergers and Acquisitions 198
   Claire E. Ashton-James, Killian J. McCarthy and Anca Dranca-Iacoban

9 Personality – Mergers as Marriages: Using Attachment Theory to Understand Mergers and Acquisitions 223
   Boyana N. Petkova and Killian J. McCarthy

Part III Moving Forward

A Perspective from Computer Science

10 A View to the Future – A Data-Driven Approach to Mergers and Acquisitions 253
    Auke-Dirk Pietersma and Killian J. McCarthy

Index 283