Reconnecting to Work
Policies to Mitigate Long-Term Unemployment and Its Consequences

Lauren D. Appelbaum
Editor

2012

W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research
Kalamazoo, Michigan
Contents

Foreword: What Happened to Shared Prosperity and Full Employment and How to Get Them Back: A Seussian Perspective
Richard B. Freeman

1 Introduction
Laurie Appelbaum

2 Job Displacements in Recessions: An Overview of Long-Term Consequences and Policy Options
Till von Wachter

3 Labor Market Policy in the Great Recession: Lessons from Denmark and Germany
John Schmitt

4 Causality in the Relationship between Mental Health and Unemployment

5 Work Together to Let Everyone Work: A Study of the Cooperative Job-Placement Effort in the Netherlands
Hilbrand Oldenhuis and Louis Polstra

6 Stabilizing Employment: The Role of Short-Time Compensation
Vera Brusentsev and Wayne Vroman

7 Labor Market Measures in the Crisis and the Convergence of Social Models
Michele Tiraboschi and Silvia Spattini

Authors

Index

About the Institute