WTO, India and Regionalism in World Trade

Edited by
Dr. Jamil Ahmad
Assistant Professor, Department of Economics,
Aligarh Muslim University (AMU), Aligarh

and

Dr. Dastgir Alam
Assistant Professor, Department of Economics,
Aligarh Muslim University (AMU), Aligarh

New Century Publications
New Delhi, India
Contents

About the Book ................................................................. vii
Editors' Profile ............................................................... viii
Contributors ................................................................. xi-xii
Editors’ Note on the Book ................................................ xiii-xvi

1. WTO, India, and Regional Trade Blocks 1-38
   Md. Zafar Mahfooz Nomani and Faizanur Rahman

2. India and China: Economies of the Future 39-62
   Asiya Chaudhary and Sabiha Khatoon

3. Gulf Co-operation Council (GCC) and India 63-97
   Faisal Ahmed

4. Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in SAARC Region 98-111
   Nasim Ansari and Tamanna Khan

5. Trade between India and Iran 112-127
   Md. Firdos Ahmad

6. Regionalism and Multilateralism: Challenges for Developing Countries 128-142
   Jamil Ahmad and Md. Rahmatullah

7. Regional Integration: Building Blocks or Stumbling Blocks 143-162
   Sandeep Kaur and Paramjit Nanda

8. Regional Trade Agreements of India 163-174
   Arvind Prakash
x WTO, India and Regionalism in World Trade

Appendix: Brief Description of Important Regional Trade Agreements (RTAs) of India 175-198

Index 199-206