Strategic Customer Management

Integrating Relationship Marketing and CRM

Adrian Payne

Pennie Frow
CONTENTS

List of Figures xi
Acknowledgements xv

Part I Introduction 1
  1 Strategic customer management 3

Part II Relationship marketing 37
  2 Relationship marketing: Development and key concepts 39
    Case: 2.1 MySpace – The rise and fall 72
    Case: 2.2 PlaceMakers – success factors in the building supplies sector 75
  3 Customer value creation 79
    Case: 3.1 British Telecommunications (BT) – creating new customer value propositions 108
    Case: 3.2 Zurich Financial Services – building value propositions 111
  4 Building relationships with multiple stakeholders 116
    Case: 4.1 AirAsia spreads its wings 144
    Case: 4.2 The City Car Club, Helsinki – driving sustainable car use 148
  5 Relationships and technology: Digital marketing and social media 152
    Case: 5.1 Hippo in India – using Twitter to manage the supply chain 197
    Case: 5.2 Blendtec – the ‘will it blend’ viral marketing initiative 201

Part III Customer relationship management: Key processes 205
  6 Strategy development 207
    Case: 6.1 Tesco – the relationship strategy superstar 251
    Case: 6.2 Samsung – from low-cost producer to product leadership 256
  7 Enterprise value creation 261
    Case: 7.1 Coca-Cola in China – bringing fizz to the Chinese beverages market 289
    Case: 7.2 Sydney Opera House – exploring value creation strategies 292
  8 Multi-channel integration 299
    Case: 8.1 TNT – creating the ‘perfect’ customer transaction 341
    Case: 8.2 Guinness – delivering the ‘Perfect Pint’ 346