Operational Decision-making in High-hazard Organizations

5 Air Traffic Control – ‘When you Kick a Ball you Don’t Know Where it’s Going to Land’
- 5.1 Site and Operational Context
- 5.2 Operational Decision-making
- 5.3 Reporting and Recording Decisions and Incidents
- 5.4 Organizational Attitudes Towards Safety Decision-making
- 5.5 Summary

PART B ACTING BOTH AS EMPLOYEES AND AS PROFESSIONALS

6 Decision-making and Identity
- 6.1 Organizational Identity
- 6.2 Organizational Authority
- 6.3 Professional Priorities versus Organizational Priorities
- 6.4 Experience
- 6.5 Public Trust
- 6.6 Summary and Concluding Comments

7 Rules and Compliance
- 7.1 Quality Management and Safety
- 7.2 Implementing Effective Operating Limits
- 7.3 Setting a Line in the Sand
- 7.4 Summary and Concluding Comments

8 Professionals at Work
- 8.1 Anticipation and Judgement – Seeing the Potential for Trouble
- 8.2 Applying Experience to Decision-making
- 8.3 Stories and Learning
- 8.4 Summary and Concluding Comments

9 Professional Relationships
- 9.1 Relationship to Subordinates
- 9.2 Consultation with Peers
- 9.3 Trust of Senior Management
- 9.4 Summary and Concluding Comments

10 Decisions, Risks and Barriers
- 10.1 Barriers
- 10.2 Risk
- 10.3 Summary and Concluding Comments
11 Creating Environments for Better Decision-making 143

11.1 Conclusions 144
11.2 Implications for Operating Companies 149
11.3 Implications for regulators 153

References 155

Index 163