Comparative Responses to Globalization
Experiences of British and Japanese Enterprises

Edited by
Maki Umemura
Cardiff University, UK
and
Rika Fujioka
Kansai University, Japan
Contents

,List of Figures and Tables vii
,Acknowledgements ix
,List of Contributors x
,Notes on Conventions xi

1 Introduction – Comparative Perspectives on Globalization:
Historical Reflections on British and Japanese Enterprises
Maki Umemura

2 An Empire of Goods? Groceries in Eighteenth-Century
England
Jon Stobart

3 Globalization and Voluntary Consensus Standardization in the British Wire Industry, 1880
Aashish Velkar

4 The City of London, British Ethnic and National Identities, and Investment Decisions in the Anglophone
New World, 1860–1914
Andrew Smith

5 The Genesis of Modern Management of Technology: The Case of the Meiji Cotton Spinning Sector in Globalization, 1880s–1890s
Eugene Choi

6 Globalization and Family Business: The Renewal of Idemitsu Kosan, 1990s–2000s
Minoru Shimamoto

7 Jute, Firm’s Survival, and British Industrial Policy:
Government Action under Globalization
Carlo Morelli

8 Emerging Market Strategies in Compact Vehicles: The Case of Japanese Automakers 159
   Hiromi Shioji

9 The Pressures of Globalization in Retail: The Path of Japanese Department Stores, 1930s–1980s 181
   Rika Fujioka

   Maki Umemura

11 The UK Pharmaceutical Industry: Challenges in an Era of Globalization 227
   Judy Slinn

Index 245