TRANSITIONS REVISITED

Central and Eastern Europe twenty years after the Soviet Union

edited by
Eva Polonska-Kimunguyi
and Patrick Kimunguyi

SCHOLAR Publishing House
Warsaw 2012
Contents

Introduction .................................................. 7

Part I. Transitions revisited:
Old and new challenges in Central and Eastern Europe

Jan Zielonka
Democracy and market in Central and Eastern Europe:
The end of history? ........................................... 19

Juraj Chmiel
From the Velvet Revolution to the presidency of the EU:
The Czech Republic 20 years later .......................... 32

Nina Marković
Civil society in democratic transformation in former Eastern Europe ...................................... 45

Eva Polonska-Kimunguyi
Glasnost 20 years after: Media and democracy in Central and Eastern Europe revisited ............................... 64

Patrick Kimunguyi
(New) international development actors:
The case of the EU enlargement countries .................. 83

Patrick Kimunguyi
Enlargement and EU counter-terrorism strategy ........... 102

Leigh Kamolins
Mother tongue, mother Russia: Language and human rights in post-Soviet Europe ........................................ 125
Evan Smith
Did 1989 matter? British Marxists and the collapse of the Eastern Bloc ......................................................... 145

Part II. Germany in Europe

Leslie Holmes
Two decades of German unification: Is there still a “wall in the head”? ........................................ 173

Part III. Poland in Europe

Malgorzata Klatt
The Eastern Partnership: Poland’s influence on the EU’s foreign policy ......................................................... 197

Desmond Brennan
Poland’s relations with Lithuania and Ukraine: 20 years on ...... 219

Eva Polonska-Kimunguyi
Viewers into Europeans? Polish media laws and the construction of pan-European identity ................................. 245

Part IV. Russia in Europe

Anne-Sophie Maass
Overcoming “the Chechnya irritant” in EU–Russia relations ................................................................. 277

Evan Thompson
The Russian bear swimming the Baltic: The Russo-German Nord Stream project and its implications for EU energy security ...... 295

Information about the Authors ............................................. 315