Globalization and Development
Rethinking interventions and governance

Edited by Arne Bigsten
Contents

List of figures xi
List of tables xii
Notes on contributors xiv
Preface xviii
Abbreviations xx

PART I
The governance challenge 1

1 Introduction 3
ARNE BIGSTEN

2 Impacts of external interventions on domestic governance 9
ARNE BIGSTEN

PART II
Economic policy 21

3 Democratisation in the aftermath of natural disasters 23
PELLE AHLERUP

4 Political decentralisation and the effectiveness of aid 43
THUSHYANTHAN BASKARAN, ARNE BIGSTEN AND ZOHAL HESSAMI

5 Aid volatility and domestic governance: an explorative study 73
SVEN TENGSTAM
PART III
Social policy

6 Abstinence, abstinence and more abstinence: HIV/AIDS in Malawi
DICK DUREVALL AND ANNIKA LINDSKOG

7 Reversing interventionism in twenty-first-century South America
CRISTINA ROJAS AND GUSTAVO MORALES

PART IV
Environmental policy

8 Incentives, impacts and behavioural issues in the context of payment for ecosystem services programmes: lessons for REDD+
ANNA NORDÉN, U. MARTIN PERSSON AND FRANCISCO ALPIZAR

PART V
Security policy

9 ‘Building peace from the outside’: the role of the EU in the Democratic Republic of Congo
MEIKE FROITZHEIM AND FREDRIK SÖDERBAUM

10 Willing reform? An analysis of defence reform initiatives in the DRC
MARIA ERIKSSON BAAZ AND MARIA STERN

11 The African Union and the protection of civilians: mediating ownership and sovereignty
JAN BACHMANN AND LINNÉA GELOT

PART VI
Conclusions

12 Concluding remarks
ARNE BIGSTEN

Index