Migrants, Borders and Global Capitalism
West African labour mobility and EU borders

Hannah Cross
Contents

Illustrations vi
Acknowledgements viii
Abbreviations x

1. Introduction: conceptualising labour mobility and migration 1
2. Capitalism, the state and labour migration 20
3. Primitive accumulation and labour mobility: West African migration in historical perspective 32
4. Accumulation, dispossession and labour mobility: the political economy of migration in Senegal and Mauritania 48
5. Regulating migrant labour: clandestine emigration and the EU 69
6. The projection of borders: the EU and Mauritania 88
7. Keeping labour costs down: global pressures and west African migrants in Spain 100
8. Remittances and underdevelopment: why formalising remittances will not alleviate poverty 121
9. Conclusion: unfree labour mobility between west Africa and Europe 131

Appendices: Interviews and life histories 137
  - Interview schedules 144
  - Referenced interviews 149

Glossary 166
Bibliography 168
Index 189