Contents

Contributors vii
Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: North America in Question 3
JEFFREY AYRES AND LAURA MACDONALD

Part I: North America and Political-Economic Turbulence

1 Global Economic Crisis and Regionalism in North America: Region-ness in Question? 33
   RANDALL GERMAIN WITH ABDULGHANY MOHAMED

2 Immovable Object or Unstoppable Force? Economic Crisis and the Social Construction of North America 53
   BRIAN BOW

3 Continental Governance, Post-Crisis: Where Is North America Going? 85
   STEPHEN CLARKSON

4 The Mexican Political Security Crisis: Implications for the North American Community 111
   JORGE CADENA-ROA

Part II: North American Problems without North American Governance

5 North American Community from Above and from Below:
Working-Class Perspectives on Economic Integration and Crisis 145
TERESA HEALY

6 Environment and Energy: Prospects for New Forms of Continental Governance 171
DEBORA L. VANNIJNATTEN AND NEIL CRAIK

7 Borders and Security in North America 196
EMILY GILBERT

8 Continental Dissonance? The Politics of Migration in North America 219
CHRISTINA GABRIEL

Part III: Democratic Deficits, New Actors, and Responses to the Crisis

9 Plus Ça Change: Double Bilateralism and the Demise of Trilateralism 249
STEPHANIE R. GOLOB

10 Paradiplomacy: States and Provinces in the Emerging Governance Structure of North America 277
JAMES P. ALLAN AND RICHARD VENGROFF

11 (Re)Thinking the ‘New’ North America through Women’s Citizenship Struggles in Mexico 309
ROSALBA ICAZA

12 Democratic Deficits and the Role of Civil Society in North America: The SPP and Beyond 334
JEFFREY AYRES AND LAURA MACDONALD

Conclusion: Will North America Survive? 361
JANINE BRODIE

Index 391