CHINA AND GLOBALIZATION

Critical Concepts in Economics

Edited by Linda Yueh

Volume III
China’s External Impact and Future Growth in a Globalized World Economy (Part 1)

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
CONTENTS

VOLUME III CHINA’S EXTERNAL IMPACT AND FUTURE GROWTH IN A GLOBALIZED WORLD ECONOMY (PART 1)

Acknowledgements vii

PART 2

2.1 The China effect: China’s role in the global economy 3

42 The rise of China
L. YUEH

43 Do the Asian drivers pull their diplomatic weight? China, India, and the United Nations 14
ANDREW F. COOPER AND THOMAS FUES

44 Global governance and developing countries: the implications of the rise of China 37
JING GU, JOHN HUMPHREY AND DIRK MESSNER

45 Responsibilities of China after accession to the WTO 66
C. PEI AND L. PENG

46 China and the exports of other Asian countries 80
B. EICHENGREEN, Y. RHEE, AND H. TONG

47 Impact of globalization on monetary policy 103
KENNETH S. ROGOFF
CONTENTS

48 From the great moderation to the global financial crisis: emerging markets and reforming the international economic system
L. YUEH

49 The new energy order: managing insecurities in the 21st century
DAVID VICTOR AND L. YUEH

50 Making room for China in the world economy
DANI RODRIK

2.2 China as competitor and trading partner

51 China’s integration into the world economy: implications for developing countries
Y. YANG

52 Is China’s accession to WTO threatening exports of developing countries?
S. M. SHAFAEDDIN

53 Has China displaced other Asian countries’ exports?
DAVID GREENAWAY, ARUNEEMA MAHABIR AND CHRIS MILNER

54 China’s competitive threat to Latin America: an analysis for 1990–2002
S. LALL, J. WEISS AND H. OIKAWA

55 China’s export growth and the China safeguard: threats to the world trading system?
C. P. BOWN AND M. A. CROWLEY

vi