
Banking Union for Europe

Risks and Challenges

Edited by Thorsten Beck

With contributions from:

Viral Acharya, Joshua Aizenman, Franklin Allen, Thorsten Beck, Erik Berglöf, Claudia Buch, Elena Carletti, Ralph de Haas, Luis Garicano, Andrew Gimber, Charles Goodhart, Vasso Ioannidou, Daniel Gros, Dirk Schoenmaker, Geoffrey Underhill, Wolf Wagner, Benjamin Weigert, Frank Westermann, Charles Wyplosz and Jeromin Zettelmeyer.

Contents

Foreword	vii
Banking union for Europe – risks and challenges Thorsten Beck	1
Banking union as a crisis-management tool Charles Wyplosz	9
Legacy problems in transition to a banking union Claudia M Buch and Benjamin Weigert	15
Why the rush? Short-term crisis resolution and long-term bank stability Thorsten Beck	27
Banking union in Europe and other reforms Viral V Acharya	35
The Single European Market in Banking in decline – ECB to the rescue? Daniel Gros	41
Two types of capital flight: Will a common deposit insurance help to stabilise the TARGET2 imbalances? Frank Westermann	47
Banking union: The view from emerging Europe Jeromin Zettelmeyer, Erik Berglöf and Ralph de Haas	55
Five lessons from the Spanish cajas debacle for a new euro-wide supervisor Luis Garicano	69

A first step towards a banking union Vasso Ioannidou	77
Banking union: Where we're going wrong Dirk Schoenmaker	87
Funding arrangements and burden sharing in banking resolution Charles Goodhart	95
The financial implications of a banking union Franklin Allen, Elena Carletti and Andrew Gimber	105
How to design a banking union that limits systemic risk in the Eurozone Wolf Wagner	111
US Banking over two centuries: Lessons for the Eurozone crisis Joshua Aizenman	119
The political economy of (eventual) banking union Geoffrey R D Underhill	127
