Social Marketing

From tunes to symphonies

Second Edition

Gerard Hastings and Christine Domegan
Contents

List of illustrations and exercises x
Case study contributors xvi
Acknowledgements xix
Foreword xx
Preface: Of tunes and symphonies xxi

Chapter 1 If it works for Coca-Cola . . . 1
Chapter 2 Social marketing principles 25
Chapter 3 The shoulders of giants 53
Chapter 4 Making it happen – the toolbox 81
Chapter 5 Research and the art of storytelling 117
Chapter 6 Only connect 152
Chapter 7 Competitive analysis 189
Chapter 8 Critical marketing 219
Chapter 9 Ethical issues 250
Chapter 10 The big picture – systems social marketing 267
Afterword: A call to action 296
Appendix: Foreword to The Marketing Matrix 300
Case studies

1  Don’t let the sun get under your skin: Targeting adolescent sun protection with a novel social marketing campaign
   Sandra C. Jones, Keryn Johnson, Joanne Telenta, Jeffrey A. Thom, Melinda Williams, Don Iverson and Peter Caputi

2  ‘From theory to action – Co-creation in the rural world’: the Querença Project
   Helena Alves and Sara Fernandes

3  Saving lives – Involving citizens in the chain of survival: The critical role of placement
   Sara Balonas and Susana Marques

4  The need for Internal Social Marketing (ISM): Extending the people focus to service employees
   Josephine Previte and Rebekah Russell-Bennett

5  MumBubConnect: Using SMS to engage new mothers
   Rebekah Russell-Bennett, Danielle Gallegos, Josephine Previte and Robyn Hamilton

6  ‘Help – For a life without tobacco’: Public health branding campaign
   Abraham Brown

7  A case of critical thinking: Marketing strategies used to promote licensed drugs
   Marisa de Andrade

8  Promoting female condoms among female sex workers in India
   Sameer Deshpande, Purvi Shah and Sharad Agarwal

9  ‘Get Your Life in Gear’
   Sinead Duane and Christine Domegan

10 The National League Against Cancer’s ‘You Kill, You Pay’ campaign: How to fight the tobacco industry
    Karine Galloplé-Morvan and Christophe Leroux

11 ‘Cold and Flu Affects More than You’: A social marketing campaign targeting influenza transmission on a university campus
    Sandra C. Jones, Lyn Phillipson, Karen Larsen-Truong and Lance Barrie

12 Quebec’s ‘Help Them Grow’
    François Lagarde and Marie Gendron

13 Using social marketing to improve breastfeeding rates in a low socio-economic area
    Ray Lowry, Julia Austin and Molly Patterson
14 Relationship marketing involves parents in drug prevention, but how easy is it?
Susana Marques

15 ‘Turn it Off’
Doug McKenzie-Mohr

16 Hospital emergency department overcrowding: A social marketing approach
Juan M. Rey, José Montero and Rafael Araque

17 Saathiya youth-friendly network innovative Behaviour Change Communication for family planning services in India
Sanjeev Vyas

18 Internal social marketing: Encouraging pro-environmental behaviour in the workplace
Anne M. Smith

19 Healthy Heroes, Magic Meals and a visiting alien: Community-led assets-based social marketing
Martine Stead

20 National Health Service Corps: Putting members first drives enrollment
Melissa Otero and John Strand

21 FAN - Famiglia, Attività fisica, Nutrizione: Ticino, Switzerland’s campaign for healthy weight
L. Suzanne Suggs, Natalie Rangelov, Mallely Rangel Garcia and Lucía Aguirre Sánchez

22 Empower and engage: Tackling the social determinants of risky drinking in two deprived communities
Katie Collins and Lindsay Manning

23 Ethical issues in pro-social advertising: The Australian 2006 White Ribbon Day campaign
Robert John Donovan, Geoffrey Jalleh, Lynda Fielder and Robyn Ouschan

24 Applying social marketing to the H1N1 2009 pandemic flu and the promotion of vaccines
Paulo Moreira

Index