Erika Szyszczak • Johan Willem van de Gronden
Editors

Financing Services of General Economic Interest

Reform and Modernization
Contents

1 Introduction ......................................................... 1
   Erika Szyszczak

Part I The Altmark Legacy

2 The Impact of Altmark: The European Commission Case
   Law Responses .................................................. 35
   Max Klasse

3 The European Courts’ Jurisprudence After Altmark;
   Evolution or Devolution? ...................................... 53
   Hans Vedder and Marijn Holwerda

4 The Role of Procurement and SGEI After Altmark .......... 69
   Ian Clarke

Part II Reform of the Altmark-Monti-Kroes Package

5 The European Commission’s Reform Strategy ............... 87
   Stéphane Rodrigues

6 The Almunia Package: Legal Constraints, Policy Procedures, and Political Choices ......................................... 99
   Tim Maxian Rusche

7 The Almunia Package: State Aid and Services
   of General Economic Interest ................................ 125
   José Luís Buendía Sierra and José Manuel Panero Rivas
8 Financing Services of General Economic Interest: The European Commission's Economic Tests .................. 149
James Kavanagh

9 The Commission's Modernisation Agenda for Procurement and SGEI ................. 161
Albert Sanchez Graells

Part III Exclusions from the Package

10 The Altmark Update and Social Services: Toward a European Approach .......................... 185
Johan W. van de Gronden and Catalin Stefan Rusu

11 Transport ................................................. 217
Tim Maxian Rusche and Silvia Schmidt

12 This Won't Hurt a Bit: The Commission's Approach to Services of General Economic Interest and State Aid to Hospitals .......................... 249
Leigh Hancher and Wolf Sauter

13 Conclusion .............................................. 273
Johan W. van de Gronden

Table of Cases ........................................... 285

Table of European Commission Decisions ........................................ 289

Index ..................................................... 293