The Quality of Public Expenditures in the EU
Table of content

1. Introduction
2. Composition and quality of public expenditures in the EU
   2.1 Growth-friendly expenditures – theoretical considerations
   2.2 The composition of expenditures in the EU and its recent evolution
      2.2.1 The composition of expenditures in static terms – the share of investment and other productive expenditures
      2.2.2 The evolution of the expenditure mix since the onset of the economic crisis
      2.2.3 Conclusions
3. Improving the efficiency of public expenditure
   3.1 Preliminary considerations
   3.2 Efficiency of health care expenditure: main findings and recommendations
   3.3 Towards more performance-based public spending: case studies
      3.3.1 Context and definition
      3.3.2 Conclusions
4. Growth-enhancing and high-quality expenditure in the EU budgetary framework
5. A way forward for the assessment of quality of public expenditures in the EU
Annex 1. Efficiency and cost-effectiveness of health care expenditure
Annex 2. Case studies on performance-based public spending
Annex 3. Figures on growth-friendly spending items within COFOG-II data