THE GLOBAL ECONOMY IN TRANSITION
Debt and Resource Scarcities

Jørgen Ørstrøm Møller
Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore,
Singapore Management University, Singapore
& Copenhagen Business School, Denmark

Foreword by Professor Jagdish Bhagwati
Contents

Foreword v
About the Book xi
About the Author xiii
Preface and Acknowledgements xv

Overview of The Global Economy in Transition: Debt and Resource Scarcities 1

Part I The Global System 29
Introduction to Part I 31
China’s Effort to Redefine Corporate Governance 35
Welcome to the Age of Angst 45
WikiLeaks and Consequences for Modern Diplomacy 49
The Deadly Cocktail 63
Private Gain, Public Loss 71
Making Profit at the Cost of Society’s Interest 73
Conventional Economic Theory — A Critique Highlighting Flaws in American Style Capitalism 77

Part II Scarcities — New Economic Thinking 99
Introduction to Part II 101
Key Events Driving the Future of Chinese Economy 105
Saving Resources with a Tax on their Total Use 111
Want a Way Out of the Recession? Create Jobs 115
by Saving Resources
The Era of Scarcities 119
Asia Redraws the Map of Progress 123
Tax on Commodity Profits Could Postpone Scarcity 133

Part III Debt 137
Introduction to Part III 139
The Way Out of the Debt Trap 143
Global Debt Picture Not Very Pretty 147
Inflation or Deflation? Both! 153
U.S. More Worrying than Europe 157
Why Debt Does Not Go Away 161
Global Economy Faces Wealth Redistribution 165
Has the Fed Got it Wrong Again? 169
The Markets Prey on Debt-Laden Nations 171
Nationalism or Capitalism? Sovereign Wealth Funds of Non-OECD Countries 175
Agonising Wait for U.S. Economy to Rebalance 201
Get Out While you Can 205
U.S. Recession: Spend Now, Save Later 209

Part IV The Euro-zone 213
Introduction to Part IV 215
Lessons Asia Can Learn from Europe 221
Europe, Not Euro, May Break Apart 229
Now Comes the Hard Part for the Euro-zone 233
Why the Euro will Survive 237
In Europe, North Battles South 241
Europe After the Debt Crisis 245
Painful Euro Crisis and Lessons for the World 253
The Euro-zone Fights for Survival 257

Part V Asia in the Global Economy 261
Introduction to Part V 263
Economic Integration — The Future for Asia 267
From Asian Financial Crisis to the Western Debt Crisis 273
The Asian Supply Chain Becomes More Compact 279
What Makes S’pore Different 281
Lessons for Asia from the Global Financial Crisis 285
How Will Southeast Asia Position Itself in Asia’s Future in an Age of Scarcities? 289
How Can ASEAN Stay Relevant? 303
Asia Faces U.S. Default on its Sovereign Debt 309
U.S. and China May Move to Cap Military Spending 313
China to the Rescue: Growing Out of the Financial Crisis 317
How the U.S. and Asia Can Help Each Other 321

Postscript to The Global Economy in Transition: Debt and Resource Scarcities 325