THE POLITICAL ECOLOGY OF AGRICULTURAL HISTORY IN GHANA

MICHAEL O’NEAL CAMPBELL
CONTENTS

Preface vii
List of Figures ix
Introduction xi

Part I. Political Ecology: Theoretical and International Issues 1
Chapter 1 Political Ecology, Its Roots and Complements, and International Environmental Issues 3
Chapter 2 The Physical Bases of Traditional Agriculture in West Africa 13

Part II. Ghana as a Case Study 23
Chapter 3 Traditional Agriculture in the Pre-Colonial Period 25
Chapter 4 The Colonial Period and the Agricultural Transition to Cash Cropping 39

Part III. The Post Independence Period and the Impact of Development Models on Agricultural and Environmental Systems in Ghana 61
Chapter 5 Development Planning in the 1950s and 1960s: Industrialisation and Agricultural Modification 63
Chapter 6 The Period of Socio-Economic Decline: 1970 to 1984 71
Chapter 7 Environmental Policy and Institutions in the 1980s and 1990s 79
Chapter 8 Gender Issues and Agro-Environmental Systems in Ghana 91

Conclusion 105

Bibliography and References 107
Appendices 145
Index 157