The Art of Lobbying the EU
More Machiavelli in Brussels

Fourth, fully updated and revised edition

Rinus van Schendelen

Amsterdam University Press
Detailed Contents

Special Preface to the Fourth Edition 15

Ten Years’ Anniversary of this Book

List of Figures 25
List of Best Websites 26
List of Abbreviations 28

1. The Europeanization of Public Affairs 33

I. How are we Living Together in Europe? 33
II. Solving the Irritating Differences by the EU Method 35
III. Not Member States, but Member Countries 38
IV. The Domestic Patterns of Public-Private Relationships 40
V. The Europeanization of the Member Countries 43
VI. Vectors of Europeanization 45
VII. The Fuller Story of Europeanization 49
VIII. Influence Challenges from Europeanization 52
IX. Old Influence Techniques and Lobbying 55
   1. The notion of lobbying 57
X. Lobbying the EU as Public Affairs Management 60
XI. Extra: The Growth of Public Affairs Management in Europe 64
XII. Public Affairs Management Practises at the EU Level 67

2. The Playing-field: EU Common Decision-making 71

I. Deus ex Machina 71
II. The Skeleton of the EU Machinery: Power 73
   1. The Skeleton’s Main Components 77
   2. The Ever-Changing Skeleton 83
III. The Flesh-and-Blood of the EU Machinery: Influence 87
   1. The Polycentric and Multifunctional Commission 88
   2. The Commission’s Assistant Layer of Experts 92
   3. Intermezzo: The Commission’s PA and Lobbying by the ‘Brussels Method’ 95
   4. The Parliament’s Influence Role 98
   5. ESC and COR: More Influence than Power 101
   6. The Council: More Power than Influence 103
2. Long-term EU Arena Management 195
X. Extra: The GMO Food Arena 197
XI. Arena Analysis: Necessary Means, No Sufficient Goal 203

5. Managing the Home Front 205

I. Who Is Lobbying, Why, for What and with What Result? 205
II. Organizational Assets for Public Affairs Management 206
1. Sufficient Cohesion 207
2. Useful Knowledge 210
3. Optimal Mix of Resources and Skills 211
4. Good Image 215
III. Strategy: Why PA Management? 216
IV. Strategy Development: Long-List, Shared-List and Short-List 221
V. Setting the Targets and the Agendas 225
VI. With What Result? 228
VII. The Multinational Organization's PA in the EU 231
1. Dossier Level Tasks for the Central PA Desk 234
2. The Issues of Trust and Consultants 236
VIII. Extra: The Multinational PA as Benchmark 238
IX. From the Home Front to the EU Fieldwork 242

6. Managing the EU Fieldwork 245

I. Lobbying: The Final Link 245
II. The Surplus of Unorthodox Actions 246
III. Coping with the Surplus 252
IV. Lobbying Whom? 255
V. Lobbying on What? 257
VI. How to Style One's Lobbying Better? 259
1. Supplying or Demanding 259
2. Formal or Informal 261
3. Direct or Indirect 262
VII. The Fine-Tuning of 'Sound' 266
1. Tone Makes the Melody 270
VIII. Lobbying Where? 271
1. Cyber-lobbying 273
IX. Lobbying When? 274
1. Early, Late and Continual Activities 276
X. Extra: The Ideal Profile of the EU Public Affairs Expert 278
XI. From Potentials to Limits of EU Public Affairs Management 282

7. The Limits of EU Public Affairs Management 285

I. From Tantalus to SCARE 285
II. The Sender's Mental Limits 286
   1. Emotions 287
   2. Dogmas 288
   3. Myths 290
III. The Sender's Organizational Limits 292
   1. Dissent 292
   2. Scarcity 293
   3. Lack of Leadership 295
IV. The Limits of Channel Management 296
   1. Power 298
   2. Quality 299
   3. Configuration 300
V. The Limits of Arena Management 301
   1. Pluralism 302
   2. Complexity 303
   3. Dynamics 304
VI. The Limits on the Receivers' Side 305
   1. Inattention 305
   2. Satiation 306
   3. Neutralization 307
VII. The Limiting Environment 309
   1. Reputation 309
   2. Codes of Conduct 311
   3. Outside Groups 313
VIII. Extra: The Limited National Government 315
     1. Transparency 316
     2. Pressures from Elected Politicians 317
     3. The Dogma of General Interest 318
     4. Solving the Limiting Tragedies 319
     5. Can Capitals Become More Successful? 322
IX. The Limits of PA Management in the EU: Problem or Blessing? 324
8. Public Affairs, Lobbying and EU Democracy 325

I. Democracy as a Criterion 325
II. Notions of Democracy in Europe 327
   1. Input Notions 328
   2. Throughput Notions 331
   3. Output Notions 333
   4. Feedback Notions 335

III. The Impacts of EU Interest Groups on EU Democracy 337
    1. Input Impacts 338
    2. Throughput Impacts 340
    3. Output Impacts 343
    4. Feedback Impacts 345

IV. Improving EU Democracy by EU PAM and Lobbying 348
    1. Strengthening the Positive Impacts 349
    2. Reducing the Negative Impacts 350
    3. Reinforcing the System-bound Correction Mechanisms 351

V. Extra: Improving EU Democracy by the Study of EU PAM 354

VI. Final Reflection before the Action 358

References 363

Index 383