Contents

Acknowledgments, ix

Introduction: A Market Primer, 1
  Byron E. Price and John C. Morris

CHAPTER 1
Prison for Profit: The Political and Economic Implications of Private Prisons, 9
  Brandi Blessett

CHAPTER 2
Private Prisons, Profits, and Public Interest, 29
  Eric Horent and Leslie Taylor-Grover

CHAPTER 3
Understanding the Business Models and Financing of Private Prisons, 51
  Paul Leighton

CHAPTER 4
Private Prisons and Labor Economics: Implications for Public Policy, 73
  Leslie Taylor-Grover and Robert T. Carey

CHAPTER 5
The Corrections-Commercial Complex: A High-Stakes, Low-Risk Business, 89
  Katharine A. Neill and Matthew J. Gable

vii
CHAPTER 6
Private Prisons and Health Care: The Social Implications, 117
Melanie Wilson-Lawson

CHAPTER 7
The Political Economy of Prison Privatization, 143
Maurice Vann and Samuel L. Brown

CHAPTER 8
Private Prisons as Economic Development: Evidence and Implications for Public Policy, 163
Leslie Taylor-Grover, Eric Horent, and Tiffany Wilkerson-Franklin

CHAPTER 9
Comparing Public and Private Prisons: The Trade-offs of Privatization, 181
Benjamin R. Inman

CHAPTER 10
Speculative Prisons: An Analysis, 199
Leslie Taylor-Grover

CHAPTER 11
Phoning Home: Prison Telecommunications in a Deregulatory Age, 215
Stephen Raher

CHAPTER 12
Prison Privatization: Exporting and Importing Prisoners, 251
Tiffney Barfield-Cottledge

Conclusion, 265
Byron E. Price and John C. Morris

About the Contributors, 271
Index, 277