New neighbours – on the diversity of migrants’ political involvement

Edited by
Agata Dziewulska
Anna M. Ostrowska

Warsaw, 2012
Contents

Migrants and the resources of human resources. Introductory remarks .......... 5
Anna M. Ostrowska

FINDINGS

The presentation and application of myCandidate.eu.
Introducing the Voter Advice Application for the London Mayoral and Assembly elections 2012 ......................................................... 15
Agata Dziewulska, Katarzyna Wojdelko

Voter Advice Application, ‘second-order’ elections and decentralisation of power: a comparison of the outcomes of local elections in Germany, United Kingdom and Poland ......................................................... 43
Katarzyna Bożuta, Agata Dziewulska

Safety: the state and citizens .............................................................. 65
Paweł Kozłowski, Gabriela Ziewiec

EVIDENCE

Post-accession Polish migrations ..................................................... 77
Małgorzata Pacek, Dariusz Milczarek

Poles in the EU: prior to and after accession ........................................ 95
Simona Guerra

ENCOUNTERS

Transcultural encounters of diversity. The case of Polish presence in the UK .... 111
Magdalena Nowicka

The Polish lost generation – sleepwalking in public space .......................... 125
Anna Bogumil

In defence of anecdotal evidence: voices from Polish migrants ..................... 141
Kinga Stańczuk

Beyond formal rights: challenges to political participation ........................ 151
Talja Blokland, Nihad El-Kayed, Jenna Büchy

Notes on contributors ........................................................................... 167