THE ROUTLEDGE COMPANION TO ARTS MARKETING

Edited by Daragh O’Reilly, Ruth Rentschler and Theresa A. Kirchner
CONTENTS

List of figures xiii
List of tables xiv
Notes on contributors xvi
Preface xxiii

PART I

Macro arts marketing issues 1

1 Postmodernism and arts marketing 3
   Laurie A. Meamber

2 Cultural economics and arts markets 12
   Sam Cameron

3 Art, politics, and markets 20
   Stevphen Shukaitis and Joanna Figiel

4 Arts marketing and ethics: what you can and Kant do 29
   Terry O’Sullivan

PART II

Artists and their managers 49

5 The artist as marketer and entrepreneur 51
   Ian Fillis
Contents

6 Arts managers’ career insights and their marketing implications
    Uma Jogulu and Ruth Rentschler

7 The art of marketing arts marketing to artists
    Suzette Major

PART III
Arts organizational management and strategies

8 Organizational identity and marketing in the arts
    Zannie Giraud Voss and Naomi Grabel

9 Mission statement to mission fulfilment: the role marketing plays
    Marcus Morgan

10 Traditional vs. entrepreneurial marketing of arts/culture
    Theresa A. Kirchner and John B. Ford

11 Audience valuation and pricing the performing arts
    Jennifer Wiggins Johnson

12 Interactions between, and effects of, government support on fundraising and marketing efforts of nonprofit arts organizations
    Patricia Nold Hughes and William A. Luksetich

13 ‘Walk through the doors. Be our guest'. how important are partnerships to enable multicultural groups to attend arts events?
    Fara Azmat, Ruth Rentschler and Yuka Fujimoto

14 Web strategies for engaging audiences
    Stephen B. Preece and Jennifer Wiggins Johnson

15 Arts marketing and Web 2.0-based audience development initiatives
    Anne-Marie Hede

16 Using social media to enhance the customer attendance experience
    Bonita Kolb

17 Leveraging social media to engage and retain: arts/culture organization donors, members, and volunteers
    B. Kathleen Gallagher and Jessica E. Sowa
PART IV
Consumption perspectives

18 Consuming the arts
  Gretchen Larsen
  183

19 Consumption criteria in arts marketing
  Morris B. Holbrook
  194

20 The impact of the arts experience on audiences
  Jennifer Radbourne
  204

21 Consumer motivation and the arts: conceptualizing a motivation-benefit model for understanding tourists as audiences
  Pandora Kay
  214

22 Membership and subscription in the performing arts:
  what have we learnt during the last 35 years?
  Alix Slater
  233

23 Art collecting as personal and public practice in a digital age
  Russell Belk
  243

24 Gaining deeper insight into audiences and artists: the use of autoethnography in arts research
  Marta Massi and Paul Harrison
  256

PART V
The marketing of specific arts

25 The books business: fifty shades of grief
  Stephen Brown
  275

26 Film marketing
  Finola Kerrigan, Andrew Hart and Sumanta Barua
  285

27 Fine art marketing and consumption
  Kate MacNeill and Meaghan Wilson-Anastasios
  296

28 Museum marketing: measuring retail performance
  Sandra Mottner
  306

29 Pricing in contemporary museums: the strategic turn
  Anne Gombault
  316
Contents

30 The special challenges of marketing the arts festival
   Linda Wilks
   334

31 The fluidity of value as a social phenomenon in the visual arts market
   Chloe Preece
   344

32 The art fair as a metaphor of the art world
   Catherine Morel
   353

33 Distributing visual artworks: challenges and perspectives
   Rita Kottász and Roger Bennett 364

34 Understanding audiences and marketing theater
   Ben Walmsley
   375

35 The marketing of orchestras and symphony concerts
   David Patmore
   384

36 Creating the opera habit: marketing and the experience of opera
   Peter Fraser and Iain Fraser
   393

Index
   405