PROGRAMMING
REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN POLAND.
THEORY AND PRACTICE

Editors: Tadeusz Kudłacz, Dariusz Woźniak

Warsaw 2013
Contents

Tadeusz Kudłacz, Dariusz Woźniak – Preface ......................................................... 7
Aleksander Noworól – Regional Development Plans and Programs in Poland. Current Situation and Challenges ................................................................. 25
Tadeusz Kudłacz – Programming the Development at the Territorial Level in Poland. Author’s Opinions with a Focus on Weaknesses ......................................................... 37
Tadeusz Markowski – Territorial Dimension of Integrated Development Policy – Expectations and Challenges Concerning Planning and Institutional Systems ......................................................... 51
Jacek Szlachta – Political Economy of European Cohesion Policy in Poland .................. 65
Zbigniew Mogila, Marta Zaleska, Janusz Zaleski – Jobless-growth or Employment-oriented Development – Dilemma of the New EU Financial Perspective ......................................................... 86
Marta Gancarczyk, Jacek Gancarczyk – Structural Change in Industrial Clusters – Scenarios and Policy Implications ......................................................... 111
Justyna Sokólska-Woźniak – Knowledge Economy Policy in Polish Regions .................. 129
Andrzej Klasik, Florian Kuźnik – Foresight Studies in Facilitating the Development and Management of a Region. Practical Experience in Silesia .................. 147
Zbigniew Mogila, Dariusz Woźniak – Analysis of Employment Change in the Manufacturing Sector of Voivodeships Economies. Application of the Extended Shift-share Technique ......................................................... 163
Jacek Zaucha – Programming Development of the Baltic Sea Region .................. 177
Jacek Woźniak – Development Policies of Polish Voivodeships in the Light of the New EU Financial Perspective ......................................................... 191
Michał Kudłacz – Development of Metropolitan Areas in Poland Based on the Example of Cracow Metropolitan Area ......................................................... 207
Dariusz Reśko, Tomasz Wołowiec – The Area Development Plan as a Tool of Managing the Gmina Development ......................................................... 223
Notes on Authors ................................................................................................. 244