Border Economies in the Greater Mekong Subregion

Edited by

Masami Ishida
Institute of Developing Economies
Contents

List of Tables vii
List of Figures x
Preface xii
Notes on Contributors xiv
List of Abbreviations xv

Part I General Views

Prologue: Progress in Cross-Border Movement and the Development of Border Economic Zones Toshihiro Kudo and Masami Ishida 3

1 Thailand’s Approach Toward the Management of Migrant Workers Michiko Ito 29

2 What is the Cross-Border Transport Agreement (CBTA)? Masami Ishida 53

Part II Introducing Each Border in the Greater Mekong Subregion

3 Southern Economic Corridor: Moc Bai–Bavet Border Masaya Shiraishi 79

4 Cambodia: The Economic Potential of the Thai Border Areas Kenjiro Yagura 107

5 East–West Economic Corridor: Lao Bao–Dansavanh Border Masaya Shiraishi 133

6 Impacts of Cross-Border Infrastructure Developments: The Case of the First and Second Lao–Thai Mekong Friendship Bridges Souknikhon Keola 163

7 Border Development in Myanmar: The Case of the Myawaddy–Mae Sot Border Toshihiro Kudo 186
8 Border Trade and Economic Zones on the North–South Economic Corridor: Focusing on the Connecting Points Between the Four Countries
Takao Tsuneishi
206

9 Economic Disparity of the China–Vietnam Economic Border Regions
Ryo Ikebe
250

10 Myanmar’s Border Trade with China: Roads, Gates, and Peace
Toshihiro Kudo
279

Part III Summary
Epilogue: Potentiality of Border Economic Zones and Future Prospects
Masami Ishida
299

Index
332