CONTENTS

Foreword
Robert J. Shiller vii

Acknowledgments xi

Notes on the Text, the Plates, and the Tafereel at Yale University xiii

Introduction
William N. Goetzmann, Catherine Labio, K. Geert Rouwenhorst, and Timothy G. Young 3

PART I: THE BOOK 19
1. Het groote tafereel der duwaasheid and Its Readers, Then and Now
Frans De Bruyn 21
2. Het groote tafereel der duwaasheid: A Bibliographical Interpretation
Kuniko Forrer 35
Timothy G. Young 53

PART II: FINANCE 61
4. Finance in The Great Mirror of Folly
Rik Frehen, William N. Goetzmann, and K. Geert Rouwenhorst 61
5. Blowing Early Bubbles: Rational Exuberance in the South Sea and Mississippi Bubbles
Hans-Joachim Voth 89
Eugene N. White 99
Larry Neal 107
8. Mirroring Different Follies: The Character of the 1720 Bubble in the Dutch Republic
Oscar Gelderblom and Joost Jonker 121

PART III: TEXT, IMAGE, CULTURE 141
9. Staging Folly in the Dutch Republic, England, and France
Catherine Labio 143
Frans De Bruyn 159
   Inger Leemans 173
12. Print Power: Mad Crowds and the Art of Memory in Het groote tafereel der dwaasheid
   Julie Berger Hochstrasser 191
13. Het groote tafereel der dwaasheid: Remarks on the Style and Artistic Quality of the Prints
   Thea Vignau-Wilberg 207
   Darius A. Spieth 219
15. Playing Games with the Financial Crisis of 1720: The April Card in Het groote tafereel der dwaasheid
   Jeroen Salman 235
   Benjamin Schmidt 249

PLATES 263

Contributors 333
Index 337