

Greece and the Eurozone Crisis: What is to be done?

A Pamphlet

Karl Heinz Roth

Winchester, UK
Washington, USA

CONTENTS

Before the Greek Debt Crisis	1
In the Vortex of the World Economic Crisis	9
Greece Under De Facto Forced Administration	12
The Papadimos Interim Government and the Radicalization of the Troika's Austerity Course.	20
The Fourth Austerity Program of 12 February 2012	27
The Negotiations with Private Creditors	32
By Order of the Financial Corporations: The Implementation of the Troika-Diktat until March of 2012	36
Greek Society on the Brink	42
Interim Conclusion: The Consequences of the Austerity Policies	48
The Monster of Instrumental Reason	50
Deflation and Inflation: A Collective Exploitation Squeeze	54
A Largely Fictitious Debt Cut	62
A Mockery of Democracy	65
German Rigor and German History	74

The Problem of an Alternative	83
System-Inherent Approaches	83
What is to be Done? Perspectives from Below	86
Time to Act	91
Greece in the Crisis: Basic Macro-Economic Data	92