No More Free Lunch

Reflections on the Cuban Economic Reform Process and Challenges for Transformation
Contents

1 Introduction ................................................................. 1
Claes Brundenius and Ricardo Torres Pérez

2 Structural Problems and Changes in Cuba's Economic Model 5
Ricardo Torres Pérez

3 The Economic Transformation Process in Cuba After 2011 .......... 23
Oscar Fernández Estrada

4 Current Problems in the Cuban Economy and Necessary Reforms 41
Mauricio De Miranda-Parrondo

5 Monetary and Exchange Rate Reform in Cuba: Lessons from Vietnam 63
Pavel Vidal

6 Food Production and Import Substitution in the Cuban Reform Process 83
Anicia García Álvarez and Armando Nova González

7 Cuba's Apertura to Small Enterprise .................................. 109
Archibald R.M. Ritter

8 Innovation, Entrepreneurship, and SMEs: What Can Cuba Learn from the Vietnam Reform Process? 129
Claes Brundenius and Doanh Le Dang

9 Science, Technology, and Innovation Policies and the Innovation System in Cuba: Assessment and Prospects 153
Jorge Núñez Jover and Luis F. Montalvo Arriete
10 Foreign Direct Investment in Vietnam and Cuba: Lessons Learned
Omar Everleny Pérez Villanueva

11 Non-State Socially Responsible Enterprises: The Key to Inclusive Economic Growth in Cuba
Julia Sagebien and Rafael Betancourt

12 Concluding Reflections of the Current Reform Process in Cuba
Ricardo Torres Pérez

13 Moving from Reacting to an External Shock Toward Shaping a New Conception of Cuban Socialism
Juan Triana Cordoví

14 Without Sugarcane There Is No Country. What Should We Do Now?
Pedro Monreal González

15 Reflections on the Cuban Model and the Reform Process
Claes Brundenius

About the Authors

Index