Asia’s Energy Trends and Developments
Case Studies in Cooperation, Competition and Possibilities from Central, Northeast and South Asia

volume 2

Editors
Mark Hong
Asan Institute for Policy Studies, South Korea

Amy Lugg
Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore

World Scientific
CONTENTS

Foreword v
Contributors vii

Chapter 1 The Logic of Energy Policy: The Case of Upstream Oil, Gas, Coal and Downstream Oil Sectors in Southeast Asia
Ridwan D. Rusli 1

Chapter 2 East Asia's Energy Challenges: General Energy Cooperation and the Question of Competition
Christopher Len 67

Chapter 3 Contemporary Japanese-Russian Energy Cooperation: Problems, Current Developments and Perspectives
Svetlana Vassiliouk 91

Chapter 4 Energy-Related Policy Issues in Terms of Japan-China Relations
Yuji Morita 117

Chapter 5 India's Pipelines: Paradox, Problems and Possibilities
Marie Lall 157

Chapter 6 The Caucasus: Conflict, Instability and Fossil Energy Export Route
Hooman Peimani 177
Chapter 7  Kazakh Gas Policy in the Central Asian Region: 203
Problems and Prospects
Zhanibek Saurbek

Chapter 8  The Theory of Stable Arab Gas Diplomacy: 223
Regional Energy Security Through the Arab Gas Pipeline
Mary E. Stonaker

Index  247