GREEN BARONS, FORCE-OF-CIRCUMSTANCE ENTREPRENEURS, IMPOTENT MAYORS

Rural Change in the Early Years of Post-Socialist Capitalist Democracy

NIGEL SWAIN

CEU PRESS

Central European University Press
Budapest–New York
Table of Contents

List of Tables and Maps ........................................ xi
Preface .......................................................... xiii
Introduction ....................................................... 1

1. Politics, Policies and Legal Measures ...................... 19
   THE NATIONAL POLITICS OF EARLY POST-SOCIALISM .......... 21
      Poland ........................................................ 21
      Hungary ..................................................... 24
      Czechoslovakia and the Czech and Slovak Republics .......... 27
      Bulgaria .................................................... 30
      Romania ..................................................... 32

   PRIVATISATION AND RESTITUTION POLICIES .................. 36
      Czechoslovakia and the Czech and Slovak Republics .......... 36
      Hungary ..................................................... 39
      Poland ....................................................... 41
      Romania ..................................................... 42
      Bulgaria ..................................................... 43

   CO-OPERATIVE RESTRUCTURING ............................... 43
      Co-operative transformation legislation ....................... 44
      Legacies of collectivisation and their consequences ......... 50

   CREATING A LOCAL DEMOCRATIC POLITICS ................... 55
      Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic ....................... 55
Table of Contents

Slovakia .................................................. 57
Hungary .................................................. 58
Poland ..................................................... 60
Romania ................................................... 63
Bulgaria ................................................... 64

THE RESEARCH MOMENT .................................. 67

2. Common General Findings .................................. 71

THE RESTRUCTURING OF AGRICULTURE ..................... 71
- Green barons and others ...................................... 72
- Rural structure in the mid-1990s ............................... 85

THE NON-FARM ECONOMY .................................. 88

LOCAL GOVERNMENT .................................. 98
- Inexperience ................................................ 99
- Impotence ................................................ 102

RURAL COMMUNITIES AND CIVIL SOCIETY .................. 104

3. Bulgaria .................................................. 113

CONTESTED CO-OPERATIVE LIQUIDATION ................. 114
- Co-operative livestock farming saved—Pripek .................. 114
- Livestock destroyed, a belated successor co-operative and ‘elastic’ land—Dragana ......................... 118
- Co-operative livestock retained against the odds—Slivka ... 123
- A successful co-operative on a reduced scale—Breze .......... 126
- A spectrum of ‘red’, ‘blue’ and family—Venets ................ 127
- Problems of a private farmer—Breze .......................... 133

LOCAL AUTHORITIES—COPING WITH POST-SOCIALIST RECESSON .......... 134
- A commune centre mayor’s socialist paternalism—Kupen .......... 134
- Salvaging agriculture and its services—kmetstvo villages .... 137

THE DESTRUCTION OF SOCIALIST MOUNTAIN COMMUNITIES—BLAGUN AND CHALA ........... 140

THE NON-FARM ECONOMY—NEW BUSINESSES AND A CUSHION FOR LOCAL EMPLOYMENT ....... 146

BULGARIAN SPECIFICITIES IN SUMMARY .................. 150
Table of Contents

4. Czech Republic ................................................. 153

AGRICULTURAL TRANSFORMATIONS—UNCONTESTED,

ACRIMONIOUS AND SCANDALOUS .............................. 154

Uncontested transformation—Rodáky, Nezávislice,
Lesovice, Bárov-Chúzovany ............................... 155

A scandalous transformation—Výletnice ..................... 157

An acrimonious transformation—Tvrz nad Řekou ........... 159

CONTESTED TRANSFORMATION IN AGRICULTURE AND

PROTRACTED NON-FARM PRIVATISATION—MĚSTYSOV ... 161

NON-FARM TRANSFORMATIONS—PROTRACTED AND

SERENDIPITOUS .................................................. 165

A glass works, a sawmill and the House of Culture—Nová
Hut  ............................................................ 165

Serendipitous restitutions and a late-socialist innovation—
Lesovice ......................................................... 169

INDEPENDENT BUT AT A LOSS—CONTRASTING VILLAGE

DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES .............................. 171

A newly independent commuter village—Nezávislice ....... 171

A fuzzy public–private divide—Lesovice ....................... 174

A successful business strategy and business vs ecology lobbies—Rodáky ............................................... 176

Traditional rural tourism—Výletnice ......................... 178

CONTRASTS IN OPTIMISM AND ENVY—BÁROV AND

CHÚZOVANY .................................................. 179

CZECH SPECIFICITIES IN SUMMARY ....................... 191

5. Hungary .......................................................... 195

AGRICULTURAL TRANSFORMATION—BANKRUPTCY,

SUBTERFUGE AND PATHS TO PRIVATE FARMING .......... 196

Contrived bankruptcy—Korcona ................................ 196

‘Second economy’ to private farming—Szálfa ................. 200

Voluntary liquidation and two successful successors—
Pakucs .......................................................... 201

Bankruptcy and subterfuge—Tabar ............................ 205

A modus vivendi between co-operative and private—
Károlyháza .................................................... 207
Table of Contents

A Smallholders’ policy that failed—Dombház ........................................ 209
Co-operative continuity—Szálfa .......................................................... 213

THE NON-FARM ECONOMY ............................................................ 215
Small family businesses—contrasting fates in Pakucs and Tabar .......... 215
Larger-scale new business success—Károlyháza and Zádorpuszta .... 218
‘Socialist personal services gap’ family businesses—Korcona .......... 222

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND LOCAL DEVELOPMENT POLICY ............... 226
Independence, control of schooling and promoting tourism unsuccessfully—Kissikonda .......................................................... 226
Ambivalent links with private business—Károlyháza and Kissikonda .... 229
The emergence of a business block—Székhely, Korcona, Tabar, Zádorpuszta .......................................................... 232

HUNGARIAN SPECIFICITIES IN SUMMARY ...................................... 237

6. Poland .................................................................................. 241

AGRICULTURAL TRANSFORMATION—STATE FARM PRIVATISATIONS AND SPECIALISTS ......................................................... 243
From manager to owner—Zalew and Lusowo .................................... 243
Other privatisations—Glaz, Bawełna, Zamek .................................... 246
From socialist specialist to commercial farmer—Zamek and Bawełna .................................................................................. 250

LOCAL AUTHORITIES AND REGIME CHANGE .................................. 252
From a clerical to a commercial regime—Bawełna ............................ 252
Clerical influence and intrusion—Pola, Bory and Cukier ................. 254
Continuities, innovations and the PSL—Glaz, Pola, Kanał ................ 256
‘Teachers’, ‘farmers’ and rural tourism—Bory .................................. 261

THE NON-FARM ECONOMY ............................................................ 264
Solidarity-influenced privatisation—Cukier .................................... 264
Insiders and outsiders in the face of disappearing socialist certainties—Kanał .......................................................... 265
An old new business hostile to the socialist mayor—Glaz ............... 268
THE PECULIARITIES OF A NON-EU BORDER COMMUNITY—
SEDNO .......................................................... 269
State farm privatisation—with a little help from the border 270
Town and village councils and the border tax ........................ 274
Other border benefits ................................................. 274
POLISH SPECIFICITIES IN SUMMARY .......................... 276

7. Romania .......................................................... 279
AGRICULTURAL TRANSFORMATION ............................ 281
Smooth progression from co-operative to association—
Lipova and Purani .................................................. 281
A failed association—Colibaşi ...................................... 286
Pre-socialist landholding vs machinery—Horia, Lipova and Măgura .................................................................... 289
Agromec as farmer—Măgura ....................................... 294
A large-scale private farmer—Remetea ............................ 296
THE NON-FARM ECONOMY—MODEST DEVELOPMENTS .... 300
EXTREME IMPOTENCE AT THE LOCAL LEVEL ................. 305
The Catholic priest and the doctor—Plopeni .................... 305
The Reform Church pastor and political patronage—Mica .... 307
A vibrant community culture under threat—Măgura .......... 311
Patronage, incompetence and despair—Buneşti, Colibaşi and Horia .................................................................. 314
ROMANIAN SPECIFICITIES IN SUMMARY ....................... 317

8. Slovakia .............................................................. 321
AGRICULTURAL TRANSFORMATION—VARIATIONS ON THE THEME OF CONTINUITY ............................................ 323
Co-operative demergers—Hora, Habán, Zurča, Lupta,
Bánc ................................................................. 323
Continuity without demerging—Palina and Krížava ......... 326
Continuity, secession and one private farmer—Lehota ........ 328
Client and co-operative privatisation—Klanec ................. 331
THE NON-FARM ECONOMY ....................................... 334
A brand new big business in a village of pensioners and
Roma—Palina ......................................................... 334
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Local Authority Businesses and Accommodations to Central Power</th>
<th>344</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Continuity and change—Klanec</td>
<td>344</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A new non-market business elite—Križava</td>
<td>346</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flexible political allegiances—Križava, Zurča and Župta</td>
<td>348</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fuzzy ownership and its consequences—Habán</td>
<td>349</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Problems of football sponsorship, tourism and promoting a hotel—Bánec</td>
<td>352</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Developing a village 'with no development prospects'—Hora</td>
<td>355</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A change of mayor and perhaps a change of prospects—Lehota</td>
<td>356</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Slovak Specificities in Summary</th>
<th>359</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>361</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>373</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index of Research Villages</td>
<td>391</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Index</td>
<td>393</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>