Erratum.

CONTENTS

- List of Figures vii
- List of Tables viii
- Preface ix
- Notes on Contributors x
- List of Acronyms and Abbreviations xiii

Religion and Development: Reconsidering Secularism as the Norm
Gilles CARBONNIER 1

PART 1:
RELIGION AND DEVELOPMENT AS A FIELD OF RESEARCH AND PRACTICE

1 The Myth of Religious NGOs: Development Studies and the Return of Religion
Philip FOUNTAIN 9

2 Revisiting the Religious Revival in Development: A Critique of Philip Fountain
Katherine MARSHALL 31

3 On Having Faith in the MDGs: A Response to Katherine Marshall
Philip FOUNTAIN 41

PART 2:
FAITH-BASED ORGANISATIONS AND SECULAR DEVELOPMENT

4 Faith-Based Organisations, Development and the World Bank
Jeffrey HAYNES 49

5 The Perils of Entanglement: Bilateral Donors, Faith-Based Organisations and International Development
Gerard CLARKE 65

6 Religion as a Social Substitute for the State: Faith-Based Social Action in Twenty-First-Century Brazil
Eliott MOURIER 79

7 Transformational Development: World Vision South Africa’s Response to Poverty
Hannah Lindiwe de WET 95
PART 3:
RELIGION: ALTERNATIVES TO TECHNOCRATIC AND NEOLIBERAL DEVELOPMENT?

8 The Catholic Doctrine of ‘Integral Human Development’ and its Influence on the International Development Community 115
Ludovic BERTINA

9 ‘Arab Spring’: The Influence of the Muslim Brotherhood and Their Vision of Islamic Finance and the State 128
Zidane MERIBOUTE

10 Between Neoliberalism and Morality: The Muslim Conception of Development in Turkey 144
Levent ÜNSALDI

11 The Political Economy of Desire in Ritual and Activism in Sri Lanka 159
Wim VAN DAELE

12 Using Religious Capital to Alleviate Poverty? A Case Study of Cross-border Migration in South China 174
Sam WONG

13 Convictions Beyond the Bomb: Interplays Between Violence, Religion and Development in Sri Lanka 192
Indika BULANKULAME

CONCLUSION

14 Reflections on the Role of Religion and Faith in Development Discourse and Practice 209
Moncef KARTAS, Kalinga Tudor SILVA

INDEX 221