Introduction: The New Development Paradigm: Education, Knowledge Economy, and Digital Futures
Michael A. Peters, Tina (A.C.) Besley, & Daniel Araya

1. Education as Transformation: Post-Industrialization and the Challenge of Continuous Innovation
Daniel Araya

2. Advertisarial Relations and Aesthetics of Survival
Jonathan Beller

3. Beyond the Producer/Consumer Divide: Key Principles of Produsage and Opportunities of Innovation
Axel Bruns

4. Labor, Aesthetics, and Cultural Studies in the Age of Digital Capitalism
Ergin Bulut

5. Education in the Age of Extreme Digital Exploration, Discovery, and Innovation
Fernando A. Hernandez, Kevin D. Franklin, Judith Washburn, Alan B. Craig, & Simon J. Appleford
Francis Heylighen, Iavor Kostov, & Mixel Kiemen

7. Reconceptualizing Business Education for Knowledge Work: Comparing Corporate Cults and Highly Effective Organizations
Lauren Smith, Bernard McKenna, & David Rooney

Peter Murphy

9. Open Learning, Open Assessment? Learning, Assessment, and Certification in a Global Education Competition
Harry Torrance

10. Web 2.0 and the Transformation of Education
Leonard J. Waks

11. Mass Localism
Yong Zhao

12. Digital Technologies in the Age of YouTube: Electronic Textualities, the Virtual Revolution, and the Democratization of Knowledge
Michael A. Peters & Peter Fitzsimons

13. A New Blend of Learning and the Role of Video
Michelle Selinger & Richard E.J. Jones

14. Toward the Multi-Vocal University
Ronald Barnett

Postscript: Open Development, Creative Development, and Digital Future
Michael A. Peters