

Financing Sport

— THIRD EDITION —

Dennis R. Howard, PhD
University of Oregon

John L. Crompton, PhD
Texas A&M University

A Division of the International Center for Performance Excellence
West Virginia University
262 Coliseum, WVU-CPASS
PO Box 6116
Morgantown, WV 26506-6116

Contents

Acknowledgments • xvii

Introduction • 1

SECTION I: SPORT FINANCE TRENDS AND CHALLENGES

- Chapter 1 * Operating in the New Economic Reality 21
- Chapter 2 * Challenges Facing College Sports 49
- Chapter 3 * Challenges Facing Professional Sports 79
- Chapter 4 * Trends in Sport Facility Financing 131

SECTION II: ECONOMIC RATIONALES FOR PUBLIC INVESTMENTS IN SPORT VENUES AND EVENTS

- Chapter 5 * Principles of Economic Impact Analysis 183
- Chapter 6 * Costs: The Rest of the Economic Impact Story 235
- Chapter 7 * Alternate Justifications for Public Subsidy:
Structural Capital 267
- Chapter 8 * Alternate Justifications for Public Subsidy:
Social Capital 287

SECTION III: PRIMARY SOURCES OF CAPITAL FUNDING

- Chapter 9 * Sources of Public Sector Funding 329
- Chapter 10 * Implementation of Public-Private Partnerships 391

SECTION IV: REVENUE FROM ENTERPRISE SOURCES

- Chapter 11 * Revenue Sources From Sports Venues 447
- Chapter 12 * Ticket Sales and Operation 499
by Gregg Olson
- Chapter 13 * Commercializing Media Rights 525
by Lee H. Berke
- Chapter 14 * The Sale of Licensed Merchandise 557
by Rick Van Brimmer

Index • 585

About the Authors • 601

Detailed Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
The Boom Years: The 1990s and Early Millennium Years	1
The Great Recession	5
Grim Consequences for Many American Families	6
Still Digging Out	7
Sports: No Longer Recession Proof	8
Looking Ahead	13
Organization of the Book	13
References	16
CHAPTER 1: Operating in the New Economic Reality	21
Introduction	21
Operating in a New Economic Reality	22
Ferocious Competition for Consumers' Time and Money	24
The Impact of Television on Live Attendance	25
TV Ratings Up, Attendance Down	28
Emergence of Regional Sports Networks	28
TV's Complex Relationship with Sport	29
Cutting Through the Clutter	30
Growing Dependence on Affluent Households: $100k and Up	31
Thinning Fan Base	32
Can't go Back to the "Good Old Days"	33
Doing More With Less	34
The Emergence of Mixed Martial Arts	35
Globalization	40
Summary	46
References	47
CHAPTER 2: Challenges Facing College Sports	49
The Financial Status of Intercollegiate Athletics	49
The Organization of College Sports	49
Participation Patterns for Men and Women	52
Grim Financial Realities	55
The Cost Control Struggle	64
Television to the Rescue	69
The Impact of Title IX	71
Summary	73
References	76

CHAPTER 3: Challenges Facing Professional Sports	79
Growth of Professional Sports	79
Major Leagues	79
Minor Leagues	81
The Status of Women's Professional Sports Leagues	86
Other Successful Sports Properties	90
The Economic Reality of Professional Sports	91
Team Financial Statements	93
Controlling Player Costs	98
National Football League	101
National Basketball Association	104
Major League Baseball	111
National Hockey League	114
Creative Accounting	116
Roster Depreciation Allowance	117
Franchise Appreciation	119
Drivers of Franchise Values	121
Summary	126
References	128
CHAPTER 4: Trends in Sport Facility Financing	131
The Sports Facility Boom	131
Measurement Challenges	134
Description of the Trend Tables	137
The Evolution of Facility Funding	140
Who Pays and How Much?	148
Cost Sharing Trends for Arenas	148
Cost Sharing Trends for Stadiums	150
Factors Contributing to Increased Team/ Owner Investment in Major League Facilities	153
The Equity Issue	156
Factors Contributing to Continuing Public Subsidies	160
Owner Leverage	161
The Community Power Structure	165
The Shift From General to Selective Taxes	172
The Rationale for Public Subsidy	172
Trends in the Minor Leagues	174
Trend in Colleges	175
Summary	177
References	179

CHAPTER 5: Principles of Economic Impact Analysis	183
The Rationale for Economic Impact Analysis	184
A Study's Sponsors Expect to Get What They Pay For	187
The Fundamental Principles of Economic Impact Studies	190
Accurate Participation Numbers	192
Exclusion of Local Residents and Local Sources of Funds	192
Spurious Rationales	196
Two Caveats	198
Exclusion of Time Switchers and Casuals	200
Use and Abuse of Multipliers	202
The Multiplier Concept	204
Constituent Elements of a Multiplier	206
Operationalization of the Multiplier	207
Influence of a Community's Size and Business Structure on Multipliers	208
Interpreting Sales and Income Multipliers	211
Interpreting Employment Multipliers	213
Illustrations of the Implications of Abusing the Fundamental Principles of Economic Impact Analysis	215
Mischievously Expanding the Project Scope	222
The Magnitude of Economic Impact From Sport Projects	223
Professional Sport Franchises	223
Mega Sports Events	227
Community Sports Tournaments	229
Summary	230
References	232
 CHAPTER 6: Costs: The Rest of the Economic Impact Story	 235
Costs: The Rest of the Economic Story	235
Society-Wide Costs	238
Strategic Underestimation of Capital Costs and Overestimation of Revenue Streams	240
Omission of Interest Costs	241
Land and Infrastructure Costs	242
Forgone Property Taxes	244
Operation and Maintenance Costs	245
Event Costs	247
Displacement Costs	250
Leavers	251
Avoiders	252
Place Switchers	254
Replacement Costs	255

Opportunity Costs	256
Distribution Issues	260
Summary	261
References	263
 CHAPTER 7: Alternate Justifications for Public Subsidy:
Structural Capital	267
Introduction	267
The Concept of Structural Capital	268
The Principle of Cumulative Attraction	270
Clustering	274
Rejuvenation Through Mega Events	276
Integration: A Key to Effective Rejuvenation	280
The Conflicting Goals of Public and Private Interests	282
Summary	284
References	285
 CHAPTER 8: The Alternate Justifications for Public Subsidy:
Social Capital	287
Social Capital	287
Enhancing a Community's Brand Equity	287
Awareness	287
Image	289
The Role of Major League Status in Image Creation	291
Competency and Excellence Transfer	293
The Mediating Role of the Media	296
Attracting Businesses	298
Attraction From Increased Awareness	298
Attracting Talent	298
Facilitated Networking at Sport Facilities	299
Facilitated Networking at Mega Events	300
Attracting Tourists	301
Community Pride	303
Social Cohesion	309
Measuring Social Capital Benefits	312
The Contingent Valuation Method	314
Results From CVM Studies	315
Direct Payment: An Alternate Approach to Paying for Social Capital	319
Summary	320
References	323

CHAPTER 9: Sources of Public Sector Funding	329
General Taxes	330
General Property Tax	330
General Sales Tax	337
Selective Taxes	338
Tourist Taxes	339
Sin Taxes	340
Jersey Tax	342
Player Income Tax	342
Ticket Surcharges	345
Debt Financing	346
The Use of Tax-exempt Bonds	349
Full-faith and Credit Obligations	356
General Obligation Bonds	356
Conducting a Bond Campaign	358
Certificates of Obligation	361
Nonguaranteed Debt	361
Revenue Bonds	362
Certificates of Participation	367
The Public Trust Model	369
The Public-Private Partnership Model	370
Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Bonds	370
Taxable Private Activity Bonds	379
Asset-backed Revenue Bonds	380
Mechanics of Selling Bonds	383
Bond Ratings	383
Financial and Legal Advisors	385
Summary	386
References	389
CHAPTER 10: Implementation of Public-Private Partnerships	391
Introduction	391
Challenges in Facilitating Public Private Partnerships	391
Reconciling Value Systems	392
The Unfair Competition Issue	395
Legal Principles Relating to Unfair Competition by the Public Sector	400
Legal Principles Relating to Unfair Competition by Nonprofit Organizations	401
The Complementary Assets of Public Agencies and Private Sports Enterprises	405

Public Sector Assets	406
Land Bank	406
Low-cost Capital	410
Tax Waivers	411
Control Over Permit and Zoning Processes	411
Private Sector Assets	414
Management Expertise	414
Reduced Labor Costs	418
Adaptability to Scale of Service	419
Reduced Liability Risks	420
Public-Private Partnership Models	421
Public Sector Leasing	421
Leaseback From the Private Sector	423
Public Sector Takeovers	429
Private-sector Takeovers	430
Private-sector Pump Priming	431
Expansion of Existing Public Facilities	433
Multiparty Arrangements	435
Summary	440
References	442
CHAPTER 11: Revenue Sources From Sports Venues	447
Introduction	447
Premium Seating	448
High-yield Inventory	450
Illustrations of the Most Recent Premium Seating Options	453
Challenges in Premium Seating	458
Person Seating Licenses (PSLS)	462
The Growth and Magnitude of Seat License Programs	462
How PSLs Work	465
Naming Rights	470
Professional Sports Venues	470
The Growing Value of Naming Rights Agreements	471
Challenges Ahead	475
Shirt and Team Naming Rights	479
College Sports Venue Naming Rights	482
High School Venue Naming Rights	485
Why Companies Buy Naming Rights	485
The Potential for Controversy	488
Key Elements of Naming Rights Agreements	489
Method of Payment	490
Length of Agreement	492

The Impact of Naming Rights' Partner Failings	493
Summary	494
References	497
CHAPTER 12: Ticket Sales and Operation	499
Introduction	499
The Challenge	501
The Evolution of Ticketing	502
Ticketing Moves Into the Electronics Age	505
Ticket Sales Department Organization	509
The Ticket Sales Process	511
Season Tickets	511
Mini-season Ticket Plans	512
Group Tickets	514
Single Tickets	515
Pricing Tactics: Moving From Cost Recovery to Demand-Oriented Focus	516
Ticket Services	521
The Sales Escalator	521
Customer Relationship Management	522
Summary	523
References	524
CHAPTER 13: Commercializing Media Rights	525
Introduction	525
The Business of Television and Media	527
Television Ratings and Shares	528
Total Return	532
Sports Media Outlet	533
National Broadcast and Cable Networks	533
Regional Sports Networks	535
Digital Media: Broadband, Wireless, and Tablets	537
Syndicators	539
Local Television and Radio	539
Marketing and Managing Broadcast Rights	540
Direct Sales of Rights	541
In-house Production	542
Revenue Sharing	543
Sports Television and Media Contracts	545
National Football League	545
Major League Baseball	546
National Basketball Association	547
National Hockey League	548

NASCAR	548
National Collegiate Athletic Association	549
The Olympic Games	550
Gold and Tennis	552
Boxing and Mixed Martial Arts	552
International Sports	553
Summary	553
References	555
CHAPTER 14: The Sale of Licensed Merchandise	557
Introduction	557
Licensing Basics	559
The Licensing Process	561
Collegiate Licensing	562
Professional Sports League Licensing	563
Licensing Administration Models	566
Professional Leagues	566
Collegiate Licensing	566
Agency Representation	566
In-house Management	567
Choosing a Model	567
Administration and Oversight	568
Contracts	570
Enforcement	570
Labeling	572
Customs	572
Retail v. Swap Meet	572
Online Counterfeiting	573
Corporate Social Responsibility	573
Growth and Trends	574
Summary	576
References	577
APPENDIX: Sample Provisions of a License Agreement	578
Consideration.	578
Audit.	579
Marketing.	580
Approval of Products and Promotional Materials.	580
Termination.	581
Infringements.	583
Indemnification.	583
Insurance.	583