Detailed Contents

Preface xvi
Acknowledgments xxiv

Introduction 1
Decision-Group Cultural and Operational Problems 1
  Independence Versus Interdependence 3
  Ubiquity 4
  Social Debit and Credit 4
  Lack of Psychological Preparation for
    Work in Decision Groups 6
  Lack of Skill-Based Training for
    Work in Decision Groups 6
Confusing Meeting Modes 7
  Decisions Mean Change; Change Means Disruption 8
  Difficult Individuals 8
Conclusion 8

Chapter 1. The Modern Decision Group 9
Efficient Meetings and Effective Decision Making 9
Structure: Poor Rules and Roles: Why
  Decision Groups Often Do Not Work Well 10
  Problems Decision Groups Encounter 12
Conclusion 14
Exercise 1.1: Basic Perspectives for
  High-Quality Decision-Group Meetings 15
Exercise 1.2: Problems in Functioning 15
PART II. POSITIONS AND ROLES FOR EFFECTIVE GROUP DECISION MAKING

Chapter 6. The Chair

- Considerations for a Chair-to-Be
- Conditions of Acceptance
- Clarify the Meaning of Membership
- The Mandate
- Specification of Membership
- Specification of Staff and Financial Resources
- Position Acceptance and Transition

Responsibilities of the Chair

- Idea Leader
- Idea Manager
- Decision-Group Administrator
- Meeting Head
- Official Spokesperson and Networker for Community Coalitions

Conclusion

Exercise 6.1: Before You Become Chair

Exercise 6.2: Five Duties of the Chair

Chapter 7. The Member

- Becoming a Member
- Member Responsibilities
  - Attention to Structure
  - Preparation for Content
  - Service Outside the Meeting
  - Participation in Meetings
  - Respect for the Decision Group

Conclusion
Chapter 8. The Staffer

Roles and Responsibilities
- Resource Person
- Consultant
- Catalyst
- Enabler
- Strategic and Tactical Assistant to the Chair
- Promoter of Decision-Group Function and Action
- Decision Options Analyst
- Stage Manager for Meetings
- Policy Loyalist

Boundaries of Service
A Delicate Balance
Conclusion
Exercise 8.1: The Staffer Role

Chapter 9. The Executive/CEO

The Executive/CEO and the Board
Structure of the Executive/CEO Position
The Executive/CEO and the Chair
Policy and Administration
Duties and Expectations of the Executive/CEO With Respect to the Board
- Making a Professional Presentation
- Alerting the Board to Policy Issues
- Making a Case for Strategic Initiatives
- Working With the Board as a Partner
- Developing and Educating the Board
- Dealing With Board Sensitivities
- Working With the Staff on Behalf of the Board

Conclusion
Exercise 9.1: The Executive

Chapter 10. Roles in Meetings

Key Roles
- Leader/Follower Role
- Task Role/Process Role
- Devil's Advocate/Angel’s Advocate
- Interpersonal Attender/Idea Suggester
PART III. DIFFERENT KINDS OF DECISION GROUPS

Chapter 11. The Board
Making the Right Decisions
Articulate Vision, Mission, and Goals
Make and Oversee Policy
Select and Evaluate CEO
Ensure Financial Wellness and Integrity
Introduce Strategic Planning, Change, and Entrepreneurship
Establish Proper Board Recruitment, Organization, and Entrepreneurship
Balance Inward and Outward Focus
Provide Board Training, Development, and Growth
The Board Manual
Perform Board Functions Appropriately
Undertake Regular Assessment and Evaluation
Conclusion
Exercise 11.1: Board Functions
Exercise 11.2: Rules for Board Decision-Group Functioning
Exercise 11.3: Rules for Training

Chapter 12. The Advisory Group
Advisory Group Considerations
Mission and Role
Written Advice
An Ex Officio Advisee
Written Response From Advisee
Assessing Advice
The Split Agenda
Conclusion
Exercise 12.1: The Advisory Group

Chapter 13. The Staff Group
The Staff Meeting as a Decision Group
Initiating Advice for the Executive/CEO
Planning and Preparation Are Part of a Process That Frees, Not Constrains
Importance of Group Decision Making Will Only Increase

Appendix 1. Embracing the Digital: Group Membership in a Technological World
Appendix 2. Annotated Bibliography
Appendix 3. Suggested Reading
References
Index
About the Author