Rising Powers and the Future of Global Governance

Edited by
Kevin Gray and Craig N. Murphy
Contents

Citation Information

1. Introduction: rising powers and the future of global governance
   Kevin Gray & Craig N Murphy
   1

2. Capitalist Globalisation and the Problem of Stability: enter the new quintet and other emerging powers
   Achin Vanaik
   12

3. Recasting the Power Politics of Debt: structural power, hegemonic stabilisers and change
   Andreas Antoniades
   32

4. Can China Lead?
   Mark Beeson
   51

5. Sub-imperialism as Lubricant of Neoliberalism: South African ‘deputy sheriff’ duty within BRICS
   Patrick Bond
   69

6. Brazil’s Foreign Policy Priorities
   Steen Fryba Christensen
   89

7. The ‘Ankara Moment’: the politics of Turkey’s regional power in the Middle East, 2007–11
   André Bank & Roy Karadag
   105

8. Realising Justice
   Neera Chandhoke
   123

9. Rising Donors and the New Narrative of ‘South–South’ Cooperation: what prospects for changing the landscape of development assistance programmes?
   Fahimul Quadir
   139

10. Rising Powers and the Future of Democracy Promotion: the case of Brazil and India
    Oliver Stuenkel
    157

Index
174