Central Banks’ Role as Facilitators of Electronic Banking: Cases and Implications

May 2013

Payment & Settlement Systems Department
THE BANK OF KOREA
<Executive Summary>

Chapter 1 – Introduction ......................................................... 7
1.1 Background ................................................................. 7
1.2 Concept and scope of the role as a “Facilitator of Electronic Banking” .......... 8
1.3 Classifying the organizational structure of electronic banking facilitator roles · 11

Chapter 2 – Roles and Organizational Structure of Central Banks as Facilitators of Electronic Banking ........................................... 14
2.1 Central banks facilitating electronic banking through internal organizations · 14
2.2 Central banks playing a leading role in operating organizations for electronic banking facilitation ........................................... 49
2.3 Central banks supporting and participating in organizations for electronic banking facilitation ........................................... 62
2.4 Central banks facilitating electronic banking through payment systems oversight functions ........................................... 69

Chapter 3 – Conclusions and Implications ........................................ 78
3.1 Classifying central banks’ role as facilitators of electronic banking .......... 78
3.2 Central banks paying more attention to electronic banking standardization · 83
3.3 Need for follow-up studies, including on BOK’s role in facilitating electronic banking ........................................... 87

References
Central Banks' Role as Facilitators of Electronic Banking: Cases and Implications

[List of Boxes]

<Box 1> Community of Interest Network (COIN) ................................. 21
<Box 2> ISO/TC68 and ISO 20022 ......................................................... 30
<Box 3> Payment Systems Oversight Function of the Bank of Italy ............... 51
<Box 4> Payment Systems Oversight Function of the Bank of Japan ............... 55
<Box 5> SNB’s Payment and Settlement Oversight Policy and Strategy .............. 66
<Box 6> Central Bank Oversight Tools in Retail Payments .......................... 77
<Box 7> Central Bank Involvement in Retail Payments ............................... 82

[List of Tables]

[Table 1] Payment and Settlement Systems Operated by the BOT ................. 37
[Table 2] Payment and Settlement Systems Operated by the BOM ................. 40
[Table 3] Participants and Observers of the MOB of the Netherlands ............. 59
[Table 4] Committees of SIX Interbank Clearing ...................................... 63
[Table 5] Organizations for Electronic Banking Facilitation and Central Banks’
Involvement in Major Countries ......................................................... 80
[Table 6] Major Countries’ Promoting the Introduction of ISO 20022 ............... 85
[Table 7] Organizations for Financial Standardization in Major Countries ......... 86

[List of Figures]

[Figure 1] Organization of the Reserve Bank of Australia .......................... 17
[Figure 2] Organization of the Banque de France ..................................... 25
[Figure 3] Organization of the CFONB ..................................................... 26
[Figure 4] Organization of the Boards of the RBI ..................................... 33
[Figure 5] Organization of the Bank of Thailand ....................................... 36
[Figure 6] Overview of the NCPSS of Mongolia ........................................ 42
[Figure 7] Organization of the Institute for Monetary and Economic Studies (BOJ) .... 54
[Figure 8] Organization of the SCFS ......................................................... 65
[Figure 9] Types of Central Banks’ Roles as Facilitators of Electronic Banking .... 79