FORTUNE TELLERS

THE STORY OF AMERICA'S FIRST ECONOMIC FORECASTERS

Walter A. Friedman

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS
PRINCETON AND OXFORD
CONTENTS

Preface ix
Introduction 1

Chapter 1
Roger W. Babson: The Rule of Past Patterns 12
"The fundamental law of action reaction"

Chapter 2
Irving Fisher: The Economy as a Mathematical Model 51
"The velocity of money"

Chapter 3
John Moody: The Bright Light of Transparency 86
"An aggregation of over 440 large industrial, franchise and transportation Trusts"

GALLERY OF BUSINESS AND FORECASTING CHARTS

Chapter 4
C. J. Bullock and Warren Persons: The Harvard ABC Chart 128
"The statistician ... attempts to find a specific analogy existing in an orderly universe"

Chapter 5
Wesley Mitchell and Herbert Hoover: Forecasting as Policy 166
"If we could foresee the business cycle, there would be none"

Chapter 6
Visions of the Future 194

Postscript 209
Acknowledgments 213
Notes 217
Index 261