The Future of Public Housing

Ongoing Trends in the East and the West
Contents

Part I Public Housing in the East

1. The Transferability of Public Housing Policy Within Asia: Reflections from the Hong Kong-Mainland China Case Study... 3
   Rebecca L.H. Chiu

2. Public Housing in Mainland China: History, Ongoing Trends, and Future Perspectives. 13
   Jie Chen, Juan Jing, Yanyun Man, and Zan Yang

3. Public Housing Programs and the Challenge of Household Affordability in Beijing. 37
   Zan Yang, Chengdong Yi, and Wei Zhang

4. Public Housing in Shanghai: A Tool with Multiple Purposes. 49
   Ying Chang and Jie Chen

5. Challenges to Public Housing in Post-colonial Hong Kong. 65
   Ngai Ming Yip

6. Public Housing Policy in Taiwan. 85
   Chin-Oh Chang and Shu-Mei Yuan

7. The Story of Singapore’s Public Housing: From a Nation of Home-Seekers to a Nation of Homeowners. 103
   Yongheng Deng, Tien Foo Sing, and Chaoqun Ren

8. New Experiments in Public Housing Supply in Seoul, South Korea: The Possibilities and Limits. 123
   Yeong-Hee Jang and Soo-Hyun Kim

9. Public Housing and Neoliberal Policy in Japan. 143
   Yosuke Hirayama
Part II  Public Housing in the West

10  Public Housing in Europe and North America  ........................................ 165
    Alan Murie

11  From Public Housing to Joint Ventures: Lessons from the U.S. Housing Policy Development  ........................................ 181
    Lan Deng and Zhu Xiaodi

12  Social Housing in the United Kingdom  ........................................ 199
    Mark Stephens

13  “Everyone Should Be Housed”: The French Generalist Model of Social Housing at Stake  ........................................ 215
    Claire Lévy-Vroelant

14  Maturation of the Dutch Social Housing Model and Perspectives for the Future  ........................................ 239
    Peter Boelhouwer

15  Understanding Variation in the Size of the Public Housing Sector Across Swedish Municipalities: The Role of Politics  ........................................ 259
    Roger Andersson

16  “Unorthodox” Housing Policy in Hungary: Is There a Way Back to Public Housing?  ........................................ 279
    József Hegedüs

Part III  Concluding Part

17  Reflections  ........................................ 303
    Ray Forrest