Food and Wine Events in Europe
A stakeholder approach

Edited by
Alessio Cavicchi and Cristina Santini
Contents

List of figures x
List of tables xi
Notes on contributors xii
Editors' preface xvii
Acknowledgements xviii
Editors' biography xix
An overview of the book xx

PART I

1 The importance of a stakeholder approach to investigate (and plan) food and wine events: research issues from a European perspective 3
CRISTINA SANTINI AND ALESSIO CAVICCHI

2 Food and wine events in Europe and the New World: a comparison 15
STEVE CHARTERS AND RICHARD MITCHELL

3 Food and wine events as permanent institutions 28
DONALD GETZ

4 Culture and authenticity in food and wine events 45
ALAN CLARKE

5 Food and wine events: a driver of local economic development 58
JEAN-GUILLAUME DITTER
PART II

SECTION 1

Tourism industry and 'food and wine' firms

6 Food and wine events in the context of an ultra-peripheral wine region: the case of FIVIPAL in La Palma Island, Spain
ABEL ALONSO AND ALESSANDRO BRESSAN

7 Expanding the scope of traditional rural products through events, tourism and hospitality: a preliminary case study of Italy’s GirOlio
ABEL DUARTE ALONSO AND ALESSANDRO BRESSAN

8 Running, walking, wining and dining in the Chianti countryside: the development of an active eno-gastronomic event and the changing role of the stakeholders
GIOVANNA BERTELLA

9 Business-to-business service quality assessment in professional wine events: the case of Vinitaly
ROBERTA CAPITELLO, LARA AGNOLI, ANTONINO GALATI, DIEGO BEGALLI AND MARIA CRESCIMANNO

10 Eurochocolate: an instrument of valorization for Perugia and its territory
BIANCAMARIA TORQUATI, FABIO MARIA SANTUCCI, GIULIA GIACCHÉ, CHIARA PAFFARINI, ELISA ASCIONE AND CHIARA TAGLIONI

11 If Jesus had lived now, he would have attended the Gladmatfestivalen (The Stavanger Food Festival)
REIDAR JOHAN MYKLETUN

SECTION 2

Local governments and communities

12 Food and wine events in Sardinia: the role and performance of institutions and local governments in the ‘Sardinian young wines exhibition’
GRAZIELLA BENEDETTO AND GIAN LUIGI CORINTO
13 Food festivals as purpose-created tourism attractions and their impact on destination branding: lessons learned from the development of a regional food festival in Bulgaria
MIROSLAVA DIMITROVA AND IVELINA YOVEVA

14 Promoting local? Developing sustainable local food and drink supply networks within destination development
CLAIRE HAVEN-TANG

SECTION 3
Visitors and tourists

15 Interest in food events: some insights from Swedish consumers
TOMMY D. ANDERSSON AND LENA MOSSBERG

16 The drink driving dilemma in connection with food and wine events: a cross-national evaluation of best-practice solutions from the generation Y’s point of view
ALBERT STÖCKL, ERHARD LICK, ALESSIO CAVICCHI, BENOÎT LECAT, ALBERTO MORENO-MELGAREJO, CRISTINA SANTINI AND BIRGIT TREIBER

17 Conclusion: issues still left on the “table”
CRISTINA SANTINI AND ALESSIO CAVICCHI

Appendix
Index