A Comparative Analysis of the Transformation of State/Social Property

Privatization and Restitution in the Post-Communist Countries - Kosovo as a sui generis Case of Privatization
Contents

Editorial.................................................................7
Acknowledgements......................................................9
Contents.................................................................11
Abbreviations..........................................................19
Introduction.............................................................21

PART I: Transformation of State and Social Property into Private Property in Post-Communist Countries

Chapter 1: The Idea, Necessity and Preconditions of Transforming Centrally Planned Economies to Market Economies

1.1 General Overview.................................................31
1.2 Why to Privatize? Reasons for Transformation of State and Social Property into Private Property
   1.2.1 Arguments for Privatization..................................33
   1.2.2 Arguments against Privatization............................37
   1.2.3 A Brief Summary of Arguments in favour of and against Privatization..............................................38
1.3 The Concept of Privatization......................................38
1.4 Aims and Objectives of Privatization in Post-Communist Transformation..............................................41
1.5 Preconditions for a Functioning and Successful Privatization Process and Achieving its Goals: Institutional Changes for Supporting a Market Economy
   1.5.1 Political and Economic Stability..................................43
   1.5.2 Legislative Changes: The Open Door to a Free Market and its Harmonization with International Standards Ensuring Competition..............................................44
   1.5.3 Establishment of a Free Market, Creation of Competition and Ensuring the Transparency of the Privatization Process...............................................46
1.6 How to Privatize? Conflicts of Interests in the Privatization Process
   1.6.1 The Conflicts of Interests Need to be Resolved.................48
   1.6.2 Dilemmas About Restitution......................................49
   1.6.3 The Dilemma of the Employee Ownership in Privatization.............................................................51
   1.6.4 The Conflicts Between Rapid and Gradual Reforms.............51
1.7 Conclusions.........................................................53
Chapter 2:
Privatization Methods without Restitution: The Economic, Social and Justice Impact on the Privatization Approaches

2.1 The Experiences of Post-Communist States in the Choice of Privatization Methods
2.1.1 Lack of a Unique Method of Transformation of Property 55
2.1.2 Why Different Methods of Privatization are Used? 57

2.2 Specific Analysis of Three Methods of Privatization:
Inside Privatization (MEBO), Mass Privatization (Voucher Privatization) and Sale of Assets to Investors 59
2.2.1 The Concept of Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property 60
2.2.2 The Concept of Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of Citizens in the Privatization Process 61
2.2.3 The Concept of Sale of the Assets to Outsiders – Domestic or Foreign Investors 61

2.3 Hungary 62
2.3.1 Background 62
2.3.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property 64
2.3.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process 65
2.3.4 Sale of Asset to Outsiders – Domestic or Foreign Investors 65

2.4 The Czech Republic 66
2.4.1 Background 66
2.4.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property 67
2.4.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process 68
2.4.4 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic and/or Foreign Investors 69

2.5 Former East Germany 70
2.5.1 Background 70
2.5.2 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic or Foreign Investors 71
2.5.3 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property 73

2.6 Poland 74
2.6.1 Background 74
2.6.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property 76
2.6.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process 76
2.6.4 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic and/or Foreign Investors 77

2.7 Transformation of Property in Three Former Yugoslav Republics: Slovenia, Croatia, and FYR Macedonia 77
2.7.1 General Overview

2.7.2 Slovenia
   2.7.2.1 Background
   2.7.2.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property
   2.7.2.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process
   2.7.2.4 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic and/or Foreign Investors

2.7.3 Croatia
   2.7.3.1 Background
   2.7.3.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property
   2.7.3.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process
   2.7.3.4 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic and/or Foreign Investors

2.7.4 FYR Macedonia
   2.7.4.1 Background
   2.7.4.2 Insider Privatization – MEBO: Employee Ownership in the Process of Transformation of Property
   2.7.4.3 Mass-Privatization (Voucher Privatization): The Involvement of the Citizens in the Privatization Process
   2.7.4.4 Sale of Assets to Outsiders – Domestic and or Foreign Investors

2.8 Conclusions

Chapter 3:
Transformation of Property through Restitution as a Solution for the Protection of Property Rights of Former Owners:
The Experience of Several Post-Communist Countries

3.1 Relations between Privatization and Restitution (Denationalization)

3.2 Restitution and Treatment of Property Rights of Former Owners in some Post-Communist Countries with a Centrally Planned Economy and the Concept of State Property
   3.2.1 Overview
   3.2.2 Hungary
      3.2.2.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
      3.2.2.2 The Forms of Restitution
      3.2.2.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
      3.2.2.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
      3.2.2.5 Summary
3.2.3 The Czech Republic
3.2.3.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.2.3.2 Forms of Restitution
3.2.3.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
3.2.3.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.2.3.5 Summary

3.2.4 Former East Germany
3.2.4.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.2.4.2 Forms of Restitution
3.2.4.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
3.2.4.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.2.4.5 Summary

3.2.5 Poland
3.2.5.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.2.5.2 Possible Forms for Restitution and Restitution Debates
3.2.5.3 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.2.5.4 Summary

3.3 Restitution and Treatment of Property Rights of Former Owners in Post-Comunist Countries with Reference to Social Property: Specific Focus in Former Yugoslav Republics – Slovenia, Croatia, and FYR Macedonia

3.3.1 Slovenia
3.3.1.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.3.1.2 Forms of Restitution
3.3.1.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
3.3.1.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.3.1.5 Summary

3.3.2 Croatia
3.3.2.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.3.2.2 Forms of Restitution
3.3.2.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
3.3.2.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.3.2.5 Summary

3.3.3 FYR Macedonia
3.3.3.1 Legal Basis for Restitution
3.3.3.2 Forms of Restitution
3.3.3.3 The Extension of Restitution and Eligible Persons for Restitution
3.3.3.4 Restitution for Religious Organizations
3.3.3.5 Summary
3.4 Conclusions

Chapter 4:

4.1 Overview

4.2 The Practice of the Strasbourg Bodies (European Commission of Human Rights and European Court of Human Rights) Related to Restitution of Property: Review of Restitution Cases in Relation to the European Convention on Human Rights

4.2.1 Ratione Temporis

4.2.2 Ratione Materiae

4.2.3 Equal Treatment

4.2.4 Duty to Restitute

4.3 The Impact of UN Acts and the Practice of the UN Human Rights Committee Related to the Restitution Issue

4.4 The Similarities and Differences of the Decisions of the Strasbourg Bodies and the UN Human Rights Commission in Dealing with Restitution Cases

4.4.1 The Similarities Regarding the Extension of the Conventions Effect in Time

4.4.2 The Differences on the Basis of Various Implementations of the Rules of the Relevant Conventions to Equal Protection before the Law to all Persons

4.4.3 Similarities Regarding Amount of Compensation for Restitution

4.5 Conclusions

PART II:
Transformation of Social Property in Kosovo: Kosovo as a Sui Generis Case of Privatization

Chapter 5:
The Concept of Social Property and its Development in Kosovo

5.1 Background

5.2 Legal Status of Social Property in Kosovo

5.2.1 Establishment of Socialist Ownership and Agrarian Reforms

5.2.2 Nationalization of Private Commercial Enterprises

5.2.3 Nationalization of Forests and Pastures as well as Ownership Limitation in Lands

5.2.4 Establishment of Cooperatives and Cooperative Relations

5.3 Status of Socialist Ownership in Kosovo from 1950-1974 and Establishment of Self-Management System in Enterprises

5.3.1 Economic Reforms, Reorganization of Enterprises and Self-Management System in Enterprises
5.3.2 Ownership Transformations and Establishment of Self-Management System in Enterprises 148

5.4 The Concept of Social Property According to the 1974 Constitution of Kosovo 149
5.4.1 The Concept of Social Ownership According to the 1974 Kosovo's Constitution until 1989 149
5.4.2 Forms of Ownership According to Constitutional and Legal Regulation after 1974 151
5.4.3 Forms of Social Ownership in Immovable Property 152
   5.4.3.1 Socially Owned Agricultural Land 152
   5.4.3.2 Socially Owned Construction (Industrial) Land 152
   5.4.3.3 Socially Owned Apartments 153
   5.4.3.4 Social Business Premises 154

5.5 Legal Concept of Social Ownership under the Constitution of 1974: Differences and Similarities with State Property 154
5.5.1 Legal Concept 154
5.5.2 Some Legal Arguments for Identification of Social Property as State Property 157

5.6 The Status of Social Property in Kosovo from 1989 to 1999 159

5.7 Conclusions 160

Chapter 6: Privatization of Socially Owned Property in Kosovo 161

6.1 Background 161
6.2 Institutional Framework 162
   6.2.1 UNMIK Administration 162
   6.2.2 Kosovo Governmental Structure: Provisional Institutions of Self-Government (PISG) of the Republic of Kosovo 163
   6.2.3 Legal Framework: Diffused Legal Bases 164
6.3 The Impact of Unresolved Political Status in the Privatization Process: The Lack of Debate on Privatization 166
6.4 Economic Environment: Ruined Economy and Low Living Standards During the Privatization Process 168

6.5 Social Property and Challenges Towards Administration and Privatization under the UNMIK Authority 170
   6.5.1 The Question of Administration of SOEs 171
   6.5.2 Commercialization of SOEs 171

6.6 Social Property and the Question of Privatization under the UNMIK Authority 172
   6.6.1 Background 172
   6.6.2 Legal Challenges Regarding Privatization of SOEs 173
6.6.3 The Question of the Privatization Model:
The Critical Assessment of the Privatization Proposals

6.7 Privatization of Social Property under the Kosovo Trust Agency

6.7.1 Establishment of the Kosovo Trust Agency:
The Legal Status and its Function

6.7.2 Administration of POEs and SOEs

6.7.3 Privatization of SOEs

6.7.4 Sale of Assets to Investors

6.7.4.1 Privatization According to the Spin-Off Model

6.7.4.2 Liquidation

6.7.4.3 Long Term Leases

6.8 Insider Privatization: Employee Ownership in the Privatization Process

6.9 Transformation of Social Immovable Property:
The Right to Use the Land for 99 Years

6.10 Socially Owned Apartments and Construction Land

6.11 Privatization Process under the Privatization Agency of Kosovo

6.12 Conclusions

Chapter 7:
Resolving Ownership Disputes During Privatization:
The Lack of Treatment of Restitution

7.1 Overview

7.2 The Establishment of the Special Chamber

7.3 The Critical Assessment of Resolving Ownership Claims over the Privatized Property

7.3.1 Resolving Property Disputes Regarding the SOEs Transformed during the Milosevic Regime 1989-1999

7.3.2 Resolving Disputes Regarding Employees’ Rights during Privatization of Property

7.4 The Treatment of the Former Owners’ Claims Regarding Restitution of Property

7.4.1 Background

7.4.2 The Lack of Legal Framework for Resolving the Restitution Issue

7.4.3 The Negative Effect of the Lack of Legal Framework

7.4.4 The Difficulties of Resolving the Issue of Restitution of Former Owners

7.4.5 Documents to Verify the Ownership Title

7.4.5.1 System of Tapou (Tapia)

7.4.5.2 Registering the Property: Possession Certificate and Ownership Certificate

7.4.5.3 Books of Tabulation and the Court’s Archive

7.4.5.4 De facto Possession (Prescription)
7.4.6 The Need to Resolve the Restitution of Property of the Former Owners

7.4.7 Opportunities of Resolving the Restitution Problem
   7.4.7.1 Extension of Restitution
   7.4.7.2 Compensation

7.5 Conclusions

Chapter 8:
  General Conclusions
  Bibliography
  Research and Study Reports
  Legal Acts