Islamic Banking and Finance

Edited by

Mondher Bellalah and Omar Masood

CAMBRIDGE SCHOLARS PUBLISHING
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface ........................................................................................................................................ viii
Adnan Ahmed Yousif, President and CEO of Albaraka Banking Group,
Chairman of the Board of Directors, Union of Arab Banks

Introduction ................................................................................................................................... x

Chapter One ................................................................................................................................... 1
Introduction to Islamic Finance and Islamic Banking: From Theory to Innovations
Shayeh Zineb and Mondher Bellalah
  Section 1: From a Conceptual Idea to an Evolving and Fast Growing
    Reality
  Section 2: An Overview on the Framework of Islamic Finance and Banking 13
  Section 3: Islamic Financial Contracts and Products
  Conclusion: On the Challenges and Issues of Structuring Innovative Shariah Compliant Products

Chapter Two ................................................................................................................................... 71
Productivity Growth in the GCC Banking Industry 1999–2007:
Conventional Versus Islamic Banks
Samir Abderrazek Srairi
  Section 1. Introduction
  Section 2. Revue of Literature
  Section 3. Methodology
  Section 4. Data and Variables
  Section 5. Empirical Results and Analysis
  Conclusion
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Authors</th>
<th>Sections</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Five</td>
<td>Iran's Islamic Banking Experience and Future</td>
<td>Omar Masood and Mondher Bellalah</td>
<td>1. Introduction, 2. The Islamic Banking Law—Did the Banking System Implement It?, Conclusion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Chapter Seven ........................................................................................................ 196
Islamic Mortgages
Omar Masood and Mondher Bellalah
  Section 1. Introduction
  Section 2. Major Principles of Islamic Finance
  Section 3. The Islamic Mortgage Market in UK
  Section 4. Empirical Analysis
  Conclusion

Chapter Eight ....................................................................................................... 221
Role of Islamic Mortgages in the UK
Omar Masood and Mondher Bellalah
  Section 1. Introduction
  Section 2. Uk Sharia-compliant Market Analysis
  Section 3. Islamic Modes of Financing
  Section 4. The Growth of Islamic Financial Institutions
  Section 5. Comparison between Islamic and Conventional Mortgages
  Conclusion

Chapter Nine ....................................................................................................... 244
The “Islamic Bank of Britain”: Case Study Analysis
Omar Masood and Mondher Bellalah
  Section 1. Introduction
  Section 2. Objectives of the Study
  Section 3. Islamic Banking in the United Kingdom
  Section 4. The Islamic Bank of Britain
  Section 5. Methodology
  Section 6. Results and Analysis
  Section 7. Author Findings
  Summary and Conclusions
  Recommendations

Chapter Ten ........................................................................................................... 261
Growth of Islamic Banking and Employee Satisfaction in Bangladesh
Omar Masood and Mondher Bellalah
  Section 1. Introduction
  Section 2. Aims and Objectives
  Section 3. Literature Review for Bangladesh
  Section 4. Methodology
  Conclusions
  Policy and Recommendation