Contents

About the Authors.................................................................v
Acknowledgements.............................................................x
Foreword..............................................................................xi
Prof. Gelase Mutahaba
Introduction...........................................................................xiv
Paulos Chanie

Chapter 1: The Trajectory of Public Administration in Africa:
Background .............................................................................1
Paulos Chanie

Chapter 2: Reforms without Change: Kenya’s Unending
“War on Corruption”..............................................................23
Joshua M. Kivuva

Chapter 3: Public Sector Reform amid Adversity and Uncertainty: The Zimbabwean Experience .......................55
Claudious Chikozho

Chapter 4: The Privatisation and Deregulation of Dar es Salaam’s Public Transport, 1983–2010:
Outcomes and Dilemmas.....................................................81
Matteo Rizzo

Chapter 5: Integrating All Stakeholders: Health Service
Governance in Addis Ababa .................................................107
Kassa T. Alemu and Shawel A. Yosef

Chapter 6: The Ups and Downs of Business Process
Re-Engineering (BPR): A Tale of Two Offices
in Bahir Dar Town, Ethiopia ...............................................135
Abebe Walle Menberu
Chapter 7: The Inside Story of Outsourcing: Contract Management Capacity in Tanzania ...................................155
Leonada Mwagike and Mamkwe Claudia Edward

Chapter 8: E-Government for Good Governance:
The Case of Tanzania ..................................................169
Muhajir Kachwamba

Chapter 9: The Quantity-Quality Balance:
Reforms in University Education in Uganda ..........189
Roberts Kabeba Muriisa

Chapter 10: Making Outcomes Matter: Programme-Based Budgeting for a Better Public Sector in Mauritius...207
Verena Tandrayen-Ragoobur and Kesseven Padachi

Chapter 11: Good Intentions, Poor Results: Reforming the Academic Organisational Structure and Performance Management System at the University of Botswana ........................................227
Keene Boikhutso

Chapter 12: Big Growth and Big Mistakes:
Telecoms in South Africa ..........................................247
Maxwell Chanakira

Chapter 13: The Performance of Decentralisation and Public Sector Accountability Reforms in Uganda ...267
William Muhumuza

Chapter 14: Contracting Out Public Services to Private Agents:
Lessons from the Management of Local Government Contracts in Ghana ........................................295
Nicholas Awortwi

Chapter 15: Lessons and Conclusions...............................329
Paschal B. Mihyo

Index.................................................................................336