MIGRATION AND THE UNITED NATIONS POST-2015 DEVELOPMENT AGENDA

Edited by Frank Laczko and Lars Johan Lönnback

International Organization for Migration (IOM)
Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................... 5

Introduction ................................................................................................. 7
Frank Laczko and Tara Brian

1 Labour migration in the post-2015 development agenda ....................... 21
Paula Lucci and Pedro Martins

2 Will a post-2015 development framework acknowledge migration? .... 53
Anna Knoll and Niels Keijzer

3 Labour migration and development indicators in the post-2015 global development framework ............................................................................ 67
Philip Martin

4 Health in the post-2015 development agenda: The importance of migrants’ health for sustainable and equitable development .................................... 93
Davide Mosca, Barbara Rijks and Caroline Schultz

5 Migration as a development enabler: Putting enablers into practice in the post-2015 development agenda .................................................................. 107
Chris Richter

6 Developing a global partnership on migration and development in the post-2015 agenda .......................................................................................... 117

• Annex: Suggested migration related development targets and indicators .... 132
Sarah Rosengärtner and Lars Johan Lönnback