Gorillas, Markets and the Search for Economic Values

Rethinking Lehman Brothers and the Global Financial Crises

Bob Hoogenboom, Marcel Pheijffer and Edgar Karssing (Eds.)

2013 Van Gorcum
Contents

1 Introduction: What’s New? 1
    Abraham Hoogenboom, Marcel Pheijffer and Edgar Karssing

Part I The Blame Game 11

2 The Financial Crisis is not a Corporate Governance Crisis 13
    Paul Frentrop

3 Breached Confidence, Breached Trust 23
    Tom Berkhout

4 Dealing With Ethical Failures in the Financial Industry 33
    André Nijhof

5 A Case of Bad Shareholder Governance? 43
    Daniëlle Melis

6 Accounting Professionalism: They Just Don’t Get It! 53
    Marcel Pheijffer

7 Political Economy 63
    Bob Hoogenboom

Part II Psychology and Culture 73

8 Wealth Effects in Macroeconomic Theory and Policy 75
    Ivo Arnold and Tom van Veen

9 Consumer Trust in Times of Financial Crises 85
    Edward Groenland, Joost Stalpers and Sjaak Bloem

10 Make Way for Homo Apertus 95
    Leen Paape and Edgar Karssing

11 Unethical Behaviour in the Dutch Financial Industry: an Empirical View 105
    Raymond Zaal and Ronald Jeurissen
12 Creating Cultural Capital? Lehman Also Had its Core Values... 115
Olof Bik

13 Five Years After Lehman Brothers. Still too Few Sisters 125
Mijntje Lückerath-Rovers

Part III Reinventing Regulation and Overcoming Information Asymmetry 137

14 A Dutch Controllers Platform. Early Warning Through Information Sharing 139
Jan Bots and Anne-Marie Kruis

Joost van Buuren and Niels van Nieuw Amerongen

16 Achieving Stable Government Finances – a Risk Management Exercise in a European Context 159
Martin Dees and Jan Droogsma

17 Portfolio Management After the Crisis 169
Arie Buijs

18 Out of Control 179
Remko Renes and Ruud Pruijm

19 An Alternative View on Lehman’s Case: a Complexity Approach 189
Marie-Joêlle Browaeys and Sandra Fisser

20 Legal Strategies Appeared Ineffective When We Needed Them. Revisiting the Norm of Integrity 199
Bas Steins Bisschop

21 International Trends in Financial Sector Supervision 209
Paul Hilbers and David Rijsbergen

22 Using Tax Measures to Tackle the Crisis? 219
Arco Bobeldijk
Part IV Other Business Models, New Values 227

23 What's Wrong with the Status Quo? Paving the Way for New Banks 229
Kitty Koelmeijer

24 From Lost Brothers to Brothers in Arms 237
Lidewey van der Sluis

25 Free Space, Small-scaleness and Modesty 247
Leo Witvliet

26 Debt Finance and Disintermediation After Lehman Brothers 259
Mike Nawas and Dennis Vink

27 The Fall of Lehman Brothers as a Historic Benchmark. Corporate Strategy in the Shade of Politicized Economic Science 269
Hans Veldman

28 Response to a Crisis: the Advent of the Civic Economy 279
René Tissen

29 A Changed Playing Field: Opportunities to Invest in Nature Conservation, Environmental Assets and Pro-biodiversity Projects 289
Tineke Lambooy and Michiel Brandt

30 The Silver Lining of a Dark Cloud. Using Social Innovation to Make the Supply Chain a Crisis Buster 299
Robert Blomme, Jack van der Veen and Venu Venugopal

31 Strengthening Competitive Position for the Long Term with Lean Management. Neglected: Thorough Examination of Processes as Basis for Success 309
Jacques Reijniers

32 Empowered Leadership. Mind-sets and Qualities to Create Post-crisis Economical, Societal and Ecological Value 317
Sander Tideman and Muriel Arts

33 Social Venturing Entrepreneurship: a New Form of Economic Co-operation 327
Henk Kievit

34 The Making of Europe. Historical Lessons for the Globalization of the European View 337
Paul de Blot

About the authors 345